

Almonty Receives its Final Drawdown from KfW IPEX-Bank for Ongoing Construction of the Sangdong Tungsten Mine

Toronto – 09 January 2025 - Almonty Industries Inc. (“Almonty” or the “Company”) (TSX: AII / ASX: AII / OTCQX: ALMTF / Frankfurt: ALI) is pleased to announce that it has received its final drawdown of US$906,000 of the US$75.1 million KfW IPEX-Bank (“KfW”) project loan facility related to the construction of the Company’s Sangdong Tungsten Mine in South Korea. This milestone marks the culmination of a strong and collaborative partnership with KfW, which has consistently demonstrated unwavering support for Almonty since the financing was granted.

The completion of the drawdown underscores the KfW’s confidence in Almonty’s strategic vision to become a leading global producer of tungsten with construction of its Sangdong Tungsten Project in South Korea. Since the approval of the project financing, the bank has supported every drawdown and utilization request made by the Company, reaffirming its commitment to Almonty’s growth and success. This collaboration has been pivotal in building a transparent and reliable source of tungsten for the Western world, supporting both global supply chain stability and long-term success.

CEO Statement “We are delighted to have reached this important milestone with the full backing of our banking partner KfW IPEX-Bank,” said Lewis Black, CEO of Almonty Industries. “Their steadfast support throughout the process has been invaluable, and we are grateful to have had such a strong and reliable project finance partner. Their loan has been crucial to the construction of the Sangdong Project in South Korea, a cornerstone of our strategic initiatives. We are fully committed to ensuring the proper and timely repayment of this facility, further demonstrating our financial responsibility and dedication to our stakeholders.”

About Almonty

The principal business of Toronto, Canada-based Almonty Industries Inc. is the mining, processing and shipping of tungsten concentrate from its Los Santos Mine in western Spain and its Panasqueira mine in Portugal as well as the development of its Sangdong tungsten mine in Gangwon Province, South Korea and the development of the Valtreixal tin/tungsten project in northwestern Spain. The Los Santos Mine was acquired by Almonty in September 2011 and is located approximately 50 kilometres from Salamanca in western Spain and produces tungsten concentrate. The Panasqueira mine, which has been in production since 1896, is located approximately 260 kilometres northeast of Lisbon, Portugal, was acquired in January 2016 and produces tungsten concentrate. The Sangdong mine, which was historically one of the largest tungsten mines in the world and one of the few long-life, high-grade tungsten deposits outside of China, was acquired in September 2015 through the acquisition of a 100% interest in Woulfe Mining Corp. Almonty owns 100% of the Valtreixal tin-tungsten project in north-western Spain. Further information about Almonty’s activities may be found at www.almonty.com
