Caprice has been making significant progress at the Island Gold Project, with the latest drilling campaign returning exceptional initial results.

In this webinar, Luke Cox will provide insights into:

- Recent drilling results and their implications for the project
- Preliminary assay results and what they indicate about gold mineralisation
- Next steps for exploration and development at Island Gold

This is a great opportunity to get the latest updates directly from the CEO and ask questions about Caprice's future exploration plans.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Caprice Resources Limited.
