ACCESS AGREEMENT SIGNED WITH MARYMIA STATION PASTORALIST FOR THE BULGERA GOLD PROJECT

Norwest Minerals Limited (ASX: NWM) ('Norwest' or the 'Company') is pleased to advise it has entered into an access agreement with Wharton Capital Limited ('Wharton Capital') for the Bulgera Gold Project (100%) located in the mid-west region of Western Australia.

Wharton Capital is the pastoral lease holder of the Marymia Station which overlaps the Company's Bulgera Gold Project development footprint and tenure. The access agreement provides Norwest consent to the grant and access to key Mining Act tenure (Mining Lease and Exploration Licences) required to develop the Bulgera Gold Project.

Norwest's CEO, Mr. Charles Schaus commented:

"This is a key step for the Bulgera Gold Project as one of the two key access matters has now been resolved. Discussions are well advanced with the Marputu AC, holders of the native title rights over the land enclosing the Bulgera Project Mining Lease application M52/1085. Norwest looks forward to working collaboratively with all stakeholders to develop the Bulgera Gold Project."
