PGY RESPONSE TO ASX CORRECTION ANNOUNCEMENT

Pilot Energy Limited (Pilot or the Company) notes the announcement issued incorrectly by ASX this morning that Pilot has been placed into suspension under ASX Listing Rule 17.5 for failing to lodge its quarterly activities statement and Appendix 5B for the half year.

Pilot also notes ASX subsequently retracted this announcement.

Pilot advises that the Company's financial year ends on 30 September and it lodged its quarterly activities statement and Appendix 5B for the half year on 31st January 2025 in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 17.5.

Pilot is in compliance with the ASX Listing Rules and remains in suspension under ASX Listing Rule 17.2 as advised in its request for suspension announced on 5 March 2025.

ENDS

This announcement has been authorised for release to ASX by the Executive Chair, Brad Lingo of the Company.

About Pilot:

Pilot is currently a junior oil and gas exploration and production company that is aggressively pursuing the diversification and transition to the development of carbon management services and integrated clean energy (hydrogen / ammonia) projects, by leveraging its existing oil and gas tenements and infrastructure to cornerstone these developments. Pilot holds a 21.25% interest in the Cliff Head Oil field and 100% interest in WA-481-P exploration permit both located offshore Western Australia, which form foundation assets for the potential development of clean energy projects in Western Australia.
