

ALDORO TO UNDERTAKE STRATEGIC REVIEW OF NON-CORE PORTFOLIO

Aldoro Resources Ltd ("Aldoro", "The Company") (ASX: ARN) wishes to advise shareholders that it has recently been approached from parties expressing an interest in its non-core exploration portfolio.

Given this approach, the Board of Aldoro has elected to undertake a strategic review of Aldoro's asset portfolio.

The review is being undertake given the status of Kameelburg Niobium-REE Carbonatite Project ("Kameelburg") being Aldoro's flagship asset and the primary focus of management and is not being considered for divestiture.

Different commercial options are being considered by Aldoro, such as the potential sale of all or some of the portfolio or other capital initiatives that will benefit shareholders.

Tenements in review will include the Niobe lithium-rubidium-tantalum project, Wyemadoo lithium-rubidium-tungsten project and the Narndee nickel-gold project which are all 100% owned by the Company in addition to EPL 7895 gold project which is 85% owned by the Company.

The Board will consider the expressions of interest it has received as part of the strategic review, but has not made a decision at this stage with respect to whether it is in the best interests of shareholders to divest assets, nor the terms on which it would be prepared to divest the assets, and therefore makes no assurances that a transaction will eventuate.

The Company cautions shareholders not to make any decisions about Aldoro shares on the assumption that a transaction will proceed.

Further market updates will be provided following any material developments arising from the strategic review.
