Strengthening Local Ties: Finder Opens Office in Dili

Finder Energy Holdings Limited (Finder or the Company) is proud to announce the opening of its new local office in Dili, demonstrating Finder's long-term commitment to operating in Timor-Leste. The office has been established to support operations for the development of the Kuda Tasi and Jahal oil fields (KTJ Project) and highlights the importance of local services and capabilities for the successful delivery of the KTJ Project.

The new office, located at CBD 3, Rua Presidente Nicolau Lobato in Dili will serve as a strategic hub for project planning, stakeholder engagement and day-to-day operations management.

Damon Neaves, CEO, said: "We are excited to establish a dedicated local presence as we move forward with this significant project. This office will be the centre for collaboration with local partners and suppliers, government and regulators, the local community and other stakeholders as we rapidly progress toward first oil."

The KTJ Project will bring significant economic benefits to Timor-Leste, including tax revenue and royalties, investment, employment and training, local business opportunities and community projects, while operating in accordance with environmental and safety standards.

Mr Luis Pereira, Finder's Timor-Leste Country Representative outside the new office
