Approach to Governance Corporate Governance Statement

This Statement outlines the key principles and practices the Board has adopted in respect of corporate governance. These principles and practices are reviewed regularly and revised as appropriate to reflect changes in law and wider developments in corporate governance.

The Board strongly supports corporate governance and actively engages with management to ensure a culture of robust governance and accountability.

In addition to the information contained in this statement, Carnarvon's website (www.carnarvon.com.au) contains a dedicated corporate governance section which includes copies of the key corporate governance policies adopted by the company.

ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations

In February 2019 the ASX Corporate Governance Council released the fourth edition of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations). The fourth edition of the Recommendations first took effect for Carnarvon in respect of the financial year commencing 1 July 2020.

Carnarvon complied with the current edition of the Recommendations throughout the Reporting Period.

Principle 1: Lay Solid Foundations for Management and Oversight

Recommendation 1.1 Role of Board and Management

Carnarvon's Constitution (Constitution) provides that the business of the company is to be managed by, or under the direction of, the Board. The roles and responsibilities of the Board are formalised in the Board Charter. The Board considers that its prime responsibility is to oversee the business activities and management of Carnarvon (and its affiliates) for the benefit of shareholders.

A copy of the Board Charter is available on Carnarvon's website.

Responsibility for management of Carnarvon's day-to-day business activities is delegated to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), who is accountable to the Board. The CEO is also responsible for shareholder communication.

In carrying out their responsibilities the CEO must report to the Board in a timely manner and ensure all reports to the Board present a true and fair view of Carnarvon's financial condition and operational results.

The role of management is to support the CEO in undertaking their role in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board.

Recommendation 1.2 Director Checks

When appointing a new director, the Board performs checks which include a check on a person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.

The biographical details of each director, including their relevant qualification and experience and the skills they bring to the Board, can be found on Carnarvon's website and in the 2025 Annual Report.

Details of any other material directorships currently held by each director are also provided in the 2025 Annual Report.

Recommendation 1.3 Written Agreement with each Director and Senior Executive

All non-executive directors are engaged by Carnarvon under formal letters of appointment. Senior executives are engaged under binding service agreements. These documents address the roles and responsibilities of the relevant position.

Details of the letters of appointment and relevant service agreements for senior executives are provided in the Remuneration Report in the 2025 Annual Report.

Recommendation 1.4 Company Secretary

The appointment and removal of a Company Secretary is a matter for the Board.

The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board (through the Chair) on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

Details of the Company Secretary are set out in the 2025 Annual Report.

Recommendation 1.5 Diversity Policy

Carnarvon first adopted a Diversity Policy in 2015.

The aim of the Diversity Policy is to develop a diverse and flexible workforce that possesses the required expertise and competence to achieve Carnarvon's strategic objectives. This involves recognising and valuing the unique contribution people can make because of their individual backgrounds, different skillsets, experience and perspectives (whether based on gender, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, disability, age or another discernible differential).

The Diversity Policy includes a requirement for the Board to set measurable diversity objectives and monitor Carnarvon's progress in achieving them. The Board set a number of diversity objectives for the Reporting Period, including:

2025 Measurable objectives	Progress
Aim to have not less than 30% of the directors of each gender (male, female)	Female Board representation in 2025 increased to 25% (2024:nil)

This evaluation is carried out internally, with external evaluation conducted on a periodic basis. The evaluation criteria are outlined in the Performance Evaluation Policy, which is available on Carnarvon's website.

The Chair conducted an internal performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and individual directors for the Reporting Period. This evaluation was undertaken in accordance with the process described above.

Recommendation 2.2 Board Skills Matrix

Carnarvon has put in place a process to assist in maintaining an appropriate and diverse mix in its Board membership via a Board Skills Matrix.

The Board Skills matrix sets out the skills, experience and expertise that the Board currently has and/or is looking to achieve for future Board membership. As well as general skills expected for Board membership (such as executive leadership and management experience, financial acumen and corporate governance and risk management experience), the matrix reflects various areas relevant to Carnarvon's strategy. In particular, these areas are understanding of the North West Shelf offshore Western Australia, legal and contracting skills, experience with government dealings, business development skills, debt and capital market experience and production and operations experience. Each of these areas are currently represented by the Board collectively. The Board benefits from a combination of directors' individual skills, experience and expertise in particular areas, as well as the varying perspectives and insights that arise from the interaction of directors with diverse backgrounds.

The Board is of the view that the current directors possess an appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and knowledge to enable the Board to discharge its responsibilities, deliver Carnarvon's corporate objectives and provide oversight in accordance with high standards of corporate governance.

Recommendation 2.3 Directors' Independence

An independent director is defined in the Recommendations as a director that is free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgment to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the company and its shareholders generally.

In addition, there is a detailed program of scheduled and ad hoc interactions with institutional investors, private investors, sell-side and buy-side analysts and the financial media.

Carnarvon's investor relations program works in tandem with our obligations under the Information Disclosure Policy which is described in detail above and a copy of which is available on Carnarvon's website.

Investor relations are managed by Carnarvon's senior executives, with an investor relations update provided to the Board as a standing item at each Board meeting.

The purpose of the R&N Committee is to assist the Board to ensure that directors and senior executives are remunerated appropriately, and in line with market expectations. The R&N Committee operates principally in a review and/or advisory capacity.

The R&N Committee's role is to review and recommend remuneration for directors and senior executives, review remuneration policies and practices, company incentive schemes and superannuation arrangements in accordance with the R&N Committee Charter.

The R&N Committee considers independent advice, where circumstances require, on the appropriateness of remuneration to ensure Carnarvon attracts, motivates and retains high quality people.

The ASX Listing Rules and the Constitution require that the maximum aggregate amount of remuneration to be allocated among the non-executive directors be approved by the shareholders in the general meeting. In proposing the maximum amount for consideration by shareholders, and in determining allocation, the R&N Committee takes account of the time demands made on directors and such factors as fees paid to non-executive directors in comparable ASX listed companies.

Details of Carnarvon's remuneration policies and framework and the remuneration paid to directors (executive and non-executive) and senior executives is set out in the Remuneration Report on pages 51 to 63 of the 2025 Annual Report.

In accordance with the Corporations Act, Carnarvon staff are prohibited from hedging Carnarvon securities prior to the vesting of those securities or while those securities are subject to a holding lock or restriction on dealing under the terms of the company's Performance Rights Plan. ¹ "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity's corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.

² Tick whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where your corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

³ Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.
