Dear Sandra,

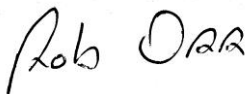

RE: ASX Trading Halt Request

Ironbark Zinc Limited ("Ironbark", the Company) (ASX: IBG) hereby requests a Trading Halt in its securities from ASX effective immediately, pending an announcement regarding the signing of an Exploitation License with the Greenland Government.

Ironbark requests the Trading Halt from receipt of the request until the release of the announcement regarding the event. It is anticipated that this announcement will be made no later than the commencement of trading on 20 December 2016.

Ironbark is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted or any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any queries in relation to this request.
