Eynesbury contract renewed with the University of South Australia

Global education services provider Navitas Limited (ASX: NVT) is pleased to announce that its agreement with the University of South Australia for Eynesbury College and the Eynesbury Institute of Business and Technology (EIBT) has been renewed and extended for a nine year term to 2025. This will align contract renewal with SAIBT, the other partnership between Navitas and the University of South Australia.

Eynesbury offers English language, foundation studies and diplomas which provide students with a pathway to the University of South Australia and the University of Adelaide. Eynesbury also offers Year 10, 11 and 12 programs to domestic and international students.

The relationship with the University of South Australia dates back to 1994 and is built on a shared commitment to academic outcomes and student experience.

"We are pleased to be extending our partnership with the University of South Australia and look forward to supporting more international students to achieve their academic goals," said Navitas Group Chief Executive Officer, Rod Jones.

"UniSA greatly values our well established relationship with Eynesbury College and Navitas. The extension of our agreement for a further nine years is a reflection of our confidence in a partnership built out of mutual respect and passion for supporting our students on their academic journeys," said Professor David Lloyd, Vice Chancellor and President of the University of South Australia.
