

19 May 2017

UNMARKETABLE PARCEL SHARE SALE FACILITY COMPLETED

Rent.com.au Limited (ASX: RNT) (“RENT” or “the Company”), Australia’s Number 1 website dedicated to rental property has completed the on-market sale of shares for holders of Unmarketable Parcels (UMP) of shares in the Company.

The ASX Listing Rules defines an “Unmarketable Parcel” as those with a market value of less than $500. As at market close on the 21 April 2017 (Closing Date), there were 1,783 holders of UMP, representing 822,867 ordinary shares in the Company.

146 holders elected to retain their shareholdings, totalling 154,549 ordinary shares, with the balance of shares sold on market by the Company’s advisors between 24 April and 12 May 2017. The average sale price achieved was $0.079 per share.

	Holders	Shares	Proceeds
Securities retained in original shareholding	146	154,549	N/A
Securities to be sold for payment to holders	1,536	664,751	$52,516.46
Securities to be sold for donation to charity	101	3,567	$281.89
Total	1,783	822,867	$52,798.35

Where the Company had banking details for shareholders, payment of the proceeds occurred on 17 May 2017.

Unclaimed funds totalling $20,708.80 are held by the Company’s share registry, Automic Registry Services, pending receipt of banking instructions from holders of UMP. Any queries regarding the disbursement of funds can be directed either to the Company or directly to Automic Registry Services:

- Email to: info@automic.com.au
- Phone: 1300 288 664 (local) or +61 2 9698 5414 (international))

Via election made on the Share Sale Facility Form, certain shareholders elected to donate the proceeds of the sale of their shares to The Ladder Project Foundation (Ladder). Ladder is the official charity of the AFL Players’ Association and is an independent not-for-profit organisation established to help young people aged 16 - 25 break the cycle of homelessness. A total donation of $588.79 will be made to Ladder by the Company.

Jan Ferreira
Company Secretary