UPDATE ON RIO TINTO MINING CONTRACT

Diversified contractor Brierty Limited (ASX: BYL) advises that its contract mining work at the Western Turner Syncline Stage 2 Project has been suspended and it has received a notice of default.

Brierty is working with Rio Tinto to address safety concerns and structure a return to operations as soon as possible.

Under the terms of the contract, Brierty has 14 days to respond to the notice of default. Brierty is confident that it can provide Rio Tinto with the assurance it requires in order to resume operations.
