Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

The Company reports below on whether it has followed each of the recommendations during the 2016/2017 financial year (Reporting Period). The information in this statement is current at 29 September 2017. This statement was approved by a resolution of the Board on 29 September 2016.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

Recommendation 1.1

The Company has established the respective roles and responsibilities of its Board and management, and those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management and has documented this in its Board Charter.

Recommendation 1.2

The Company undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to shareholders a candidate for election as a director and provides shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.

The checks which are undertaken, and the information provided to shareholders are set out in the Company's Policy and Procedure for the Selection and (Re)Appointment of Directors.

Recommendation 1.3

The Company has a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment. The material terms of any employment, service or consultancy agreement the Company, or any of its child entities, has entered into with its Executive Chair, any of its directors, and any other person or entity who is related party of the Executive Chair or any of its directors has been disclosed in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.16.4 (taking into consideration the exclusions from disclosure outlined in that rule).

Recommendation 1.4

The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board as outlined in the Company's Board Charter. The Company's Secretary's role is also outlined in the employment/consultancy agreement between the Company Secretary and the Company.

Recommendation 1.5

The Company has a Diversity Policy. However, the Diversity Policy does not include requirements for the Board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the Company's progress in achieving them. Nor has the Board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity. Given the Company's stage of development and the small number of employees, the Board considers that it is not practical to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity at this time.

The Company has no direct employees at this time apart from the board and the Company Secretary which is comprised of 4 men and no women. The Company utilises consultants to fill the required Company activities at this stage of its development.

Recommendation 1.6

The Executive Chair is responsible for evaluation of the Board and, when deemed appropriate, Board committees and individual directors. The Senior Independent Director is responsible for evaluating the Executive Chair.

Evaluations include an interview process following a review of a performance questionnaire.

During the Reporting Period due to the reduced level of activity of the Company there was no evaluation of the Board, its committees, and individual directors undertaken. This is a departure from the Company's Corporate Governance policies, and the full reviews will be completed in the 2016/2017 financial period.

Recommendation 1.7

The Executive Chair is responsible for evaluating the performance of senior executives in accordance with the process disclosed in the Company's Process for Performance Evaluations.

As there were no senior executives employed during the reporting period there were no evaluations undertaken.

Principle 2 – Structure the board to add value

Recommendation 2.1

The Board has not established a separate Nomination Committee. Given the current size and composition of the Board, the Board believes that there would be no efficiencies gained by establishing a separate Nomination Committee. Accordingly, the Board performs the role of the Nomination Committee. Although the Board has not established a separate Nomination Committee, it has adopted a Nomination Committee Charter, which describes the role, composition, functions and responsibilities of the full Board in its capacity as the Nomination Committee. When the Board convenes as the Nomination Committee it carries out those functions which are delegated to it in the Company's Nomination Committee Charter. Items that are usually required to be discussed by a Nomination Committee are marked as separate agenda items at Board meetings when required. The Board deals with any conflicts of interest that may occur when convening in the capacity of the Nomination Committee by ensuring that the director with conflicting interests is not party to the relevant discussions.

Details of director attendance at meetings of the full Board, in its capacity as the Nomination Committee, during the Reporting Period, are set out in a table in the Directors' Report of the Company's 2017 Annual Report.

The Board has adopted a Nomination Committee Charter which describes the role, composition, functions and responsibilities of the Nomination Committee and is disclosed on the Company's website.

Recommendation 2.2

The Company has during the Reporting Period had a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership. These include technical, legal, finance, corporate, accounting, corporate governance and human resource. Full details of each Director's member qualifications and expertise is included in the Company's 2016 Annual Report. These skill sets are regularly reviewed and training is undertaken to cover any additional required skills.

Recommendation 2.3

The sole independent director of the Company is Marcello Cardaci.

The Board considers the independence of directors having regard to the relationships listed in Box 2.3 of the Principles & Recommendations.

The length of service of each director is set out in the Directors' Report in the Company's 2017 Annual Report.

Recommendation 2.4

The Board does not have a majority of directors who are independent. The Board believes the current structure is appropriate given the Company's current size and activities. The existing Directors provide the necessary diversity of qualifications, skills and experience and bring quality and independent judgment to all relevant issues.

If the Company's activities increase in size, nature and scope the size of the Board will be reviewed.

MANHATTAN

MANHATTAN CORPORATION LIMITED

The Board acknowledges the benefit that a majority of independent directors can bring to the Board, and will continue to monitor and review the composition of the Board.

Recommendation 2.5

The non-independent Chair of the Board is Alan Eggers. Mr Eggers is the Company's Executive Chair, also performing the function of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. While the Board notes Recommendation 2.5, the existing structure is considered appropriate and provides a unified leadership structure. Mr Eggers is the largest shareholder of the Company, and has been a major force in the current growth and direction of the Company. His depth of knowledge of the uranium industry, his past position in growing a small exploration company into an ASX Top 200 company and his experience in growth strategies as presented to the Board has led to the conclusion that at this stage of the Company's development, he is able to bring quality and independent judgment to all relevant issues, and the Company benefits from his long standing experience of its operations and business relationships.

Recommendation 2.6

The Company has an induction program that it uses to when new directors join the Board and when new senior executives are appointed. The goal of the program is to assist new directors to participate fully and actively in Board decision-making at the earliest opportunity and to assist senior executives to participate fully and actively in management decision-making at the earliest opportunity. The Company's Induction Program is disclosed on the Company's website.

The Board regularly reviews whether the directors as a group have the skills, knowledge and familiarity with the Company and its operating environment required to fulfil their role on the Board and the Board committees effectively using a Board skills matrix. Where any gaps are identified, the Board considers what training or development should be undertaken to fill those gaps. In particular, the Board ensures that any director who does not have specialist accounting skills or knowledge has a sufficient understanding of accounting matters to fulfil his or her responsibilities in relation to the Company's financial statements. Directors also receive ongoing education on developments in accounting standards.

Principle 3 – Act ethically and responsibly

Recommendation 3.1

The Company has established a Code of Conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees, which is disclosed on the Company's website.

Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

Recommendation 4.1

The Board has not established a separate Audit Committee. Accordingly, the Board performs the role of Audit and Risk Committee. Although the Board has not established a separate Audit and Risk Committee, it has adopted an Audit and Risk Committee Charter. When the Board convenes as the Audit and Risk Committee it carries out those functions which are delegated to it in the Company's Audit and Risk Committee Charter. Items that are usually required to be discussed by an Audit and Risk Committee are marked as separate agenda items at Board meetings when required.
