NVOI SIGNS UP FIRST BRISBANE BASED FINANCIAL INSTITUTION FOR CONTRACTOR HIRING

- Top 100 ASX company to use Nvoi's platform for its contractor hiring requirements
- New corporate client represents Nvoi's first Queensland based customer and expansion into the region
- Nvoi to launch first Brisbane micro skills exchange, with a focus on IT and analytical skills and expertise
- Continues customer growth momentum and reflects the value of the Nvoi platform to corporate customers

Nvoi Limited (ASX:NVO or the Company) is pleased to announce that one of Australia's leading financial institutions has signed up to commence using the Nvoi platform for some of its contractor hiring requirements.

This represents Nvoi's first corporate client in Queensland and will see the Company launch its first Brisbane micro-skills exchanges, which will be focused on IT and analytical skills to meet the immediate demands of this large Financial Institution. Hiring managers will be able to quickly access a pool of skilled contractors to search and select candidates with the skills they need, when they need them.

Jennifer Maritz, CEO, Nvoi said: "The demand for contract work is growing as workers increasingly want to take control of their work experiences and enjoy some flexibility. We're delighted that this Financial Institution has chosen Nvoi's technology to help them leverage this changing workforce trend by offering more opportunity for contractors. Our platform will provide instant access to available skills and will take care of the laborious administration associated with hiring staff, making the hiring process simple, efficient and more enjoyable for all parties."
