

ASX Release

25 October 2017

Regulatory update

Cash Converters International Limited (ASX: CCV) ('Cash Converters' or the 'Company') notes the release of the exposure draft of the National Consumer Credit Protection Amendment (Small Amount Credit Contract and Consumer Lease Reforms) Bill 2017.

The draft legislation addresses Small Amount Credit Contracts (SACCs) and consumer leases. It should be noted that Cash Converters does not provide consumer leases.

As an industry leader in consumer finance products, Cash Converters supports any further reviews of the SACC lending regulations that serve to better protect the most vulnerable consumers, while balancing access for them to short-term or emergency finance.

Cash Converters intends to make a submission as part of the National Consumer Credit Protection Amendment exposure and consultation process.

The Company continues to expect 1H2018 to be in line with 2H2017, before the full impact of the strategic initiatives put in place over the last 12-18 months flow to the bottom line, providing a stronger 2H2018 and confidence in the future growth profile of the Company.
