About Schrole Group Ltd

Schrole Group Limited (ASX:SCL) is an Australian educational technology company providing schools with innovative talent management solutions and consulting services to address recruitment, staffing and training challenges.

Schrole was founded by former school principal Rob Graham. His passion for helping schools save time on administrative processes has helped Schrole establish itself within the local and international schools market. Schrole's innovative solutions are now being used by more than 220 schools across 37 countries.

The Group has three business units: Schrole Connect, an online Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) platform for efficient and effective recruitment of international school teachers, Schrole Cover, a cloud-based SaaS platform for the fast filling of casual staffing positions and ETAS (Education and Training Advisory Service), an Australian accredited leadership and management training provider.
