Change of Company Name & ASX Code

As approved by Kabuni Ltd shareholders at the Annual General Meeting held on 30 November 2017, the name of the Company will be changed to Serpentine Technologies Limited.

The Company's ASX code will change from KBU to S3R on 18 December 2017, along with the change of Company name, following the closing of the Rights Issue (as announced on 17 November 2017).

This change of Company name follows the sale of the Kabuni technology platform and the Company's subsidiaries; Kabuni Technologies Inc and Kabuni Technologies (India) Private Limited as previously announced to the ASX.

The Company is currently assessing development options for its Design Campus platform as well as actively seeking acquisition opportunities across all sectors, including technology, that will add value for shareholders.
