Significant Surveying Project Awards

Veris is pleased to announce the award of surveying works in the eastern states and territories, across significant infrastructure projects:

- North Connex – 2 year duration
- Canberra Light Rail – 2 year duration
- Newcastle Light Rail – 2 year duration
- NBN Eden to Brisbane – 3 year duration

Surveying services for these projects could total in excess of $5.0 million, over the initial noted project durations.

Veris' Professional Services have been engaged on a schedule of rates basis and as a result totals will vary with the scope of these initial engagements and any subsequent engagements or variations.

Commenting on Veris' award, Managing Director Adam Lamond said:

"The award of these landmark projects continues to demonstrate Veris' leadership position in the surveying industry in Australia. We are proving ourselves as a trusted provider, with the ability to service all surveying related aspects of significant infrastructure and land development projects."
