ASX LIMITED

EXTENSION OF VOLUNTARY SUSPENSION

On 6 December 2017 Mobilarm Limited requested a voluntary suspension of its shares pending the release of an announcement of a material transaction.

On 13 December 2017 and 21 December 2017 the Company extended the voluntary suspension as a result of regulatory approval delays.

The Company continues to experience delays in relation to the material transaction, and as such advises that the voluntary suspension in trading in the Company's shares will be extended until 6 February 2018.

Mobilarm is not aware of any reason why the suspension extension should not be granted.
