1. DETAILS OF THE OFFER

1.1 Background and purpose of the Offer

Recent and proposed Share issues

Rights Issue

On 1 February 2018, the Company issued a prospectus regarding a non-renounceable pro rata entitlement issue to eligible shareholders of approximately 35,924,270 Shares on the basis of 1 new Share for every 20 existing Shares held by a Shareholder at an issue price of $0.20 cents per Share to raise $7,184,854 before issue costs (Rights Issue).

In addition, all Shares issued under the Rights Issue would be issued with a corresponding 1 for 1 free attaching option to acquire a share in the Company (Rights Issue Options). The Rights Issue Options would be issued in the following tranches:

- (a) Options with an exercise price of $0.25; and
- (b) Options with an exercise price of $0.275.

Shareholders participating in the Rights Issue would receive their Rights Issue Options in equal portions of each tranche. The Rights Issue Options are exercisable on or before 2 February 2023.

The Rights Issue Prospectus provided that Shareholders could apply for additional Shares beyond their entitlement under the Rights Issue in the event that other eligible Shareholders did not take up the full extent of their entitlement (Additional Entitlement Offer). The Company reserved the right to issue Shares under the Additional Entitlement Offer at its absolute discretion.

The Rights Issue was partially underwritten to the value of $4,123,448 by Investmet Limited, an entity association with Executive Chairman Michael Fotios on the terms and conditions set out in the Rights Issue Prospectus (Underwriting Agreement).

In addition to the Rights Issue, the Rights Issue Prospectus contained a separate offer, made on the same terms and conditions, which reserved the right for the Directors of the Company to allocated any shortfall securities remaining after satisfaction of Rights Issue applications and additional Share applications to investors at their discretion (Shortfall Offer). The Shortfall Offer will remain open until 21 May 2018, three months after the Rights Issue offer closed.

The Rights Issue Prospectus contained a further additional offer of 87,500,000 Options to Hawke's Point for nil consideration as a result of Hawke's Point's participation in the Placement referred to below (Hawke's Point Options). The Hawke's Point Options were issued to Hawke's Point on 9 February 2018, in the following tranches:

- (a) 43,750,000 Options with an exercise price of $0.25; and
- (b) 43,750,000 Options with an exercise price of $0.275.

The Hawke's Point Options must be exercised on or before 2 February 2023, further terms and conditions are outlined within the Rights Issue Prospectus.

On 26 February 2018, the Company announced that the Rights Issue offer had closed on 21 February 2018 after successfully raising $2,804,260 from existing Shareholders. The Company issued 14,021,303 Shares to eligible Shareholders, along with corresponding Rights Issue Options, consisting of 11,247,806 Shares and corresponding Rights Issue Options issued to eligible Shareholders and a further 2,773,497 Shares and corresponding Rights Issue Options following additional applications from existing Shareholders pursuant to the Additional Entitlement Offer. The Rights Issue completion left a shortfall of 24,676,464 Shares available for allocation by the Company in accordance with the Shortfall Offer or the Underwriting Offer contained within the Rights Issue Prospectus. The Company issued 11,000,000 Shares, and corresponding Rights Issue Options, to Investment in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement outlined in Rights Issue Prospectus. Accordingly, 13,676,464 Shares, and corresponding Rights Issue Options, remain available for allocation pursuant to the Shortfall Offer.

Placement

On 9 November 2017, the Company announced that it had entered into a binding heads of agreement for a cornerstone investment of $17.5 million from Hawke's Point which would form part of a larger total issue of between 137,500,000 and 150,000,000 Shares at an issue price of $0.20 per Share with a corresponding 1 for 1 free attaching unlisted Option, by way of a placement to sophisticated and professional investors in order to raise between $27.5 million and up to $30 million in total (Placement).

The Company completed the Placement in two tranches, first issuing 65,350,000 Shares to sophisticated, professional and institutional investors on 31 January 2018 and secondly issuing a further 87,500,000 Shares to Hawke's Point on 2 February 2018. In total, the Company raised $30.75 million under the Placement, before costs.

Employee Share Option Plan

On 8 July 2014, the Directors of the Company adopted an Employee Share Option Plan designed to incentivise employees, executives and Directors of the Company with the opportunity to be offered Options (ESOP). The Directors considered an ESOP was desirable in order to:

- (a) reward employees of the Company;
- (b) assist in the retention and motivation of employees of the Company; and
- (c) provide an incentive to employees of the Company to grow shareholder value by providing them with an opportunity to receive an ownership interest in the Company.

The full terms and conditions of the ESOP were provided to Shareholders and remains available to the public as Annexure A to the 2017 Notice of Annual General Meeting published on the ASX on 30 October 2017.

On 30 November 2017, Shareholders approved the re-adoption of the ESOP with respect to the issue of 48,200,000 unlisted Options since it was last approved at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 8 July 2014 (ESOP Options). The 48,200,000 unlisted Options issued under the ESOP consisted of:

- (a) 11,100,000 ESOP Options (issued on 8 March 2016) at an exercisable price of $0.168 each on or before 8 March 2018.
- (b) 11,100,000 ESOP Options (issued on 8 March 2016) at an exercisable price of $0.189 each on or before 8 March 2020;
- (c) 13,000,000 ESOP Options (issued on 13 April 2016) at an exercisable price of $0.168 each on or before 8 March 2018; and
- (d) 13,000,000 ESOP Options (issued on 13 April 2016) at an exercisable price of $0.189 each on or before 8 March 2020.

As announced on 6 April 2018, The Company received valid option exercise forms to exercise 19,925,000 unlisted ESOP Options exercisable at $0.168 each on or before 8 March 2018 (Exercised Options). Of the 19,925,000 Exercised Options, 6,975,000 were exercised utilising the cashless exercise facility available pursuant to Schedule 1, Item 6 of the ESOP. Accordingly, following the pricing formula of the cashless exercise, being the 5 trading day VWAP, calculated on the basis of the 5 trading days prior to the Company's suspension date of 17 August 2017, the 6,750,000 cashless Exercised Options were exercised at a deemed price of $0.24215 each.

A total of 15,085,851 Shares were issued to Exercised Option holders following the conversion of 19,925,000 Exercised Options, consisting of:

- (a) 12,950,000 Shares issued upon conversion of Exercised Options at a price of $0.168; and
- (b) 2,135,851 Shares issued upon conversion of Exercised Options at a deemed price of $0.24215, utilising the cashless exercise facility.

The remaining 225,000 ESOP Options set to expire on 8 March 2018, which were not exercised, lapsed unexercised on that date.

Purpose of the Prospectus

The primary purpose of this Prospectus is to remove any trading restrictions that attach to the Shares issued by the Company prior to the Closing Date (including prior to the date of this Prospectus).

Generally, section 707(3) of the Corporations Act requires that a prospectus is issued in order for a person to whom securities were issued without disclosure under Part 6D of the Corporations Act to on-sell those securities within 12 months of the date of their issue.

Section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides an exemption from this general requirement where:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities of the company that are already quoted on ASX;
- (b) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC either:
 - (i) on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued; or
 - (ii) before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and
- (c) the prospectus is for an offer of securities issued by the company that are in the same class of securities as the relevant securities.

The purpose of this Prospectus is to comply with section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act so that Shareholders who have exercised their options, if they choose to, can sell the Shares issued to them within the next twelve months without the issue of a prospectus.

The Company did not undertake any Share issue with the purpose of the Shareholders selling or transferring their Shares. However, the Directors consider that the Shareholders, including Shareholders who have exercised their options should be able to sell their Shares should they wish to do so, without being required to issue a prospectus.

The Directors will determine the allottees of the Shares (if any). The Directors reserve the right to reject any application or to allocate any applicant fewer Shares than the number applied for.

Where the number of Shares allotted is less than the number applied for, the surplus moneys will be returned by cheque as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Where no allotment is made, the amount tendered on application will be returned in full by cheque as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Interest will not be paid on moneys refunded.

All Application Money received before the Shares are issued will be held in a separate bank account of the Company and held in trust until the Shares are issued or Application Monies returned. Any interest that accrues will be retained by the Company. After any Application Money is refunded (if relevant) and Shares are issued to Applicants, the balance of funds in the account plus accrued interest will be received by the Company.

In the event that the Directors decide to issue Shares under this Prospectus, and subject to the ASX granting the Official Quotation of the Shares, it is expected that the Shares will be issued as soon as practicable after the Closing Date.

The Directors do not consider that it is appropriate to give Shareholders advice regarding the taxation consequences of the Company applying for Shares under this Prospectus, as it is not possible to provide a comprehensive summary of the possible taxation positions of Shareholders.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability or responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.

3. RISK FACTORS

3.1 Introduction

- (a) There are a number of risks and uncertainties, both specific to the Company and of a general nature, which may, either individually or in combination, affect the future operating and financial performance of the Company, its prospects, and/or the value of its securities. In particular, the Company is subject to risks relating to the exploration and development of mineral properties which are not generally associated with other businesses. Many of the circumstances giving rise to these risks are beyond the control of the Company, its Directors and management.
- (b) This section describes key risks associated with an investment in the Company. It is not an exhaustive list of the risks and should be considered in conjunction with other information disclosed in this Prospectus. Additional risks and uncertainties that the Company is unaware of, or that it currently does not consider to be material, may also become important factors that may have an adverse effect on the Company. Investors should specifically consider the factors contained in this section and elsewhere in the Prospectus in light of their own investment objectives and financial circumstances, and should seek professional advice from their accountant, stockbroker, lawyer or other professional advisor before deciding whether to invest in Shares.

3.2 Company Specific Risks

- (a) Future Funding Requirements

The Company has completed its first gold pour and first carbon-in-pulp gold pour at the Davyhurst Project. The Company expects that revenues from the Davyhurst Project, together with the proceeds of the Placement and from its existing debt facilities with Investec Australia Limited (Investec) (totalling $25 million of which $15 million has been drawn down) and Investmet (totalling $15 million of which approximately $10.8 million has been drawn down) will be adequate to fund its exploration and production programs and other objectives in the short term.

However, any delays or difficulties encountered during the ramp up of the Davyhurst Project or during the period of ensuing production, or other events having an adverse effect on the revenues generated from the Davyhurst Project (see the risks below in relation to revenues and cash flows from operating activities) could materially and adversely affect the Company's financial condition and prospects and require it to raise further capital to fund its activities and objectives.

The Company may be adversely affected in a material way if, for any reason, access to that capital is not available to fund its activities and objectives. There can be no assurance that additional funds will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. The ability to raise capital (debt or equity) within an acceptable timeframe, of a sufficient amount and on terms acceptable to the Company will vary according to a number of factors, including the Company's prior performance, success of its projects, capital markets and industry conditions, including the price of gold and the relevant exchange rates and the cost base of the Company.

Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings, and additional debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration and production programs as the case may be.

- (b) Cash Flow Constraints

Even with the amounts raised under the Placement and Rights Issue, there still exists a risk that the Directors may, in the medium to long term, need to seek to raise additional funds through further capital raisings or seek to renegotiate the Company's debt arrangements (see the risks in this section 3 in relation to the Company's indebtedness). For example, if gold market conditions materially deteriorate, or there are delays or difficulties encountered in the production of gold at the Davyhurst Project, or the Company is unable to raise sufficient additional funds (by asset sales or additional capital raisings) or refinance its debt obligations on terms acceptable to the Company, the Directors would need to consider whether the Company's operations remain viable, which could ultimately impact on the Company's ability to operate as a going concern.

(c) Default on Investec Facility Agreement

The Company notes that it is in technical default under the terms of the Investec Facility Agreement. Investec has provided the Company with a standstill until 1 May 2018 to allow the Company to remedy all existing events of default under the Investec Facility Agreement, subject to a number of conditions including (i) completion of the Placement by 9 February 2018, (ii) no new events of default or review events occurring under the Investec Facility Agreement, (iii) all facility repayments, interest and costs being paid to Investec as and when due, (iv) Investmet meeting the February repayment to Investec (see paragraph (d) below) if Investec does not receive credit approval to reschedule this repayment, and (v) completion by the Company of management appointments (CEO and CFO) by 31 January 2018 and an independent board appointment by 30 April 2018 (unless otherwise agreed).

If the Company is unable to comply with the conditions to the standstill period, Investec could enforce its default rights under the Investec Facility Agreement, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and financial condition.

(d) Risk of default on debt facilities

Each of Investec and Investmet have provided financing facilities to the Company, by way of the Investec Facility Agreement and the Investmet Loan Agreement respectively. The Company's financing facilities with Investec and Investmet include various events which, if come into fruition in the future, may constitute an event of default (many of which are technical in nature), and which are standard for facilities of their type. The occurrence of an event of default may entitle Investec and/or Investmet to exercise certain rights, including the acceleration of repayment of outstanding moneys on the facilities and the enforcement of any security interests over the Company's assets.

The exercise of such rights could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and financial condition.

In terms of repayments due to be made by the Company, the Company must repay the principal amount outstanding under the Revolving Loan Facility to Investec by equal instalments on the following dates:

- (i) 1 August 2018; and
- (ii) 1 February 2019 (or such other date as agreed between the parties).

The ability of the Company to repay or reschedule repayment obligations will improve in the event of a successful capital raising but is ultimately contingent on AUD price of gold and relevant exchange rates outcomes, achievement of forecast cost outcomes and/or the ability of the Company to source additional funds through debt and equity markets.

The Company's revenues are derived from the sale of gold and so the Company's financial performance is particularly exposed to changes in the gold price. Should the Company's financial performance be adversely affected, the most logical source for servicing the debt, being its revenue, will not eventuate. In these circumstances, the Company may also have to consider the suspension or closure of some or all of its mining activities or the sale of certain assets. Where the Company fails to secure alternative funding in these circumstances, the Company's lenders may exercise rights that would be available to them, including among other things, accelerating repayment of outstanding borrowings, and/or appointing a receiver.

(e) Litigation Risks

The Company has become party to litigation or other adversarial proceedings, with or without merit, and may become party to further litigation or other adversarial proceedings. The cost of defending such claims may take away from management time and effort and if determined adversely to the Company, may have a material and adverse effect on its cash flows, results of operation and financial condition.

(f) Regulatory Action Risk

The Company may, with or without merit, become subject to an enquiry, investigation or proceedings conducted by a government agency in connection with its operations, including its employment practices. The cost of cooperating with any such investigations or enquiries, or otherwise defending such claims, may take away from management time and effort and if determined adversely to the Company, may have a material and adverse effect on its cash flows, results of operation and financial condition.

(g) Revenues and Cash Flows from Operating Activities

The Davyhurst Project is the Company's only producing project in the near term. Consequently, any delay or difficulty encountered in the production of gold at the Davyhurst Project, including any failure of the Davyhurst Project to produce expected amounts or quality of gold, equipment failure or shortages, the Company's inability to hire and retain suitable personnel and contractors, labour disputes or disruptions, permitting or licensing delays, and/or adverse weather could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

(h) Potential for suspension of certain mining activities

In light of the Company's need for funds to manage operations, future levels of cash flow, working capital requirements and indebtedness (as described above), there is a risk that the Directors may resolve to close or suspend operations at certain mines, or place some or all of the mines on care and maintenance where those assets are unable to generate positive operating cash flow in the future.

Future closure of mines, or placing operations on care and maintenance or other forms of suspension or termination of operations, could result in loss of expected revenues, and additional expenses including expenses for termination, redundancies, demobilisation, maintenance and storage of equipment used at those operations. It will also have implications for the Company's workforce, and further costs may be incurred for redundancy payments (among other things). Accordingly, this could have further adverse effects on the financial performance and financial position of the Company.

If this were to occur, the Company may seek a voluntary suspension in trading of its Shares. If gold market conditions materially deteriorate, there are delays or difficulties encountered in the production of gold at the Davyhurst Project, or the Company is unable to raise sufficient additional funds (by asset sales or additional capital raisings) or refinance its debt obligations on terms acceptable to the Company, it is possible that the Company may not have the financial capacity to meet any suspension or termination costs that may be payable to contractors, or meet its payment obligations under its debt facilities.

In these circumstances, the Directors would need to consider whether the Company remains sustainable and viable.

(i) Timing of Exploration and Operating Costs

The exploration and production costs of the Company are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration and production. By their nature, these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, therefore, the actual costs may materially differ from these estimates and assumptions. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the cost estimates and the underlying assumptions will be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect the Company's viability.

(j) Gold Price Risk

The value of the Company is highly dependent on the expected value of potential gold resources on its tenements. The price of gold fluctuates and is affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include international gold supply and demand fluctuations, technological advancements, forward selling activities, inflation, interest rates and other macroeconomic factors.

Future production from the Company's mining operations is dependent upon the AUD price of gold being sufficiently high for production to be economical, to the extent the Company is unable to mitigate its exposure through its hedging program. Price declines in the market price of gold could cause commercial production from the Company's operations to be rendered uneconomic and the value of the Company is also likely to fall in such event.

(k) Contractors

The Company's commercial practice is to sub-contract various services at the Davyhurst Project. Although sub-contracted services are supervised by the Company's employees, such arrangements with contractors carry with them risks associated with the possibility that the contractors may:

- (i) have economic or other interests or goals that are inconsistent with the Company's;
- (ii) take actions contrary to the Company's instructions or requests, or
- (iii) be unable or unwilling to fulfil their obligations.

There can be no assurance the Company will not experience problems with respect to its contractors in the future or that it will be able to find replacement contractors on similar terms in the event that its existing contractors do not perform as the Company expects and this may materially and adversely affect its business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

(l) Trade Creditors

There can be no assurance the Company will not experience problems with respect to its contractors in the future or that it will be able to recontract with existing trade creditors or otherwise find replacement contractors on similar terms acceptable to the Company and this may materially and adversely affect its business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

(m) Community Relations and Landowners

The Company's ability to undertake exploration and production on its tenements will depend in part on its ability to maintain good relations with the relevant local communities. Any failure to adequately manage community and social expectations with respect to compensation for land access, employment opportunities, impact on local business and other expectations may lead to local dissatisfaction with the Company, which in turn may lead to disruptions in the exploration and production programs on the tenements and potential losses.

(n) Access risk

Land access is critical for exploration and mining operations. Access to land can be affected by land ownership, including private (freehold) land, pastoral lease, regulatory requirements within the jurisdiction where the Company operates and competing or underlying tenement interests.

The Company's tenements are in areas proximate to other mining tenements or applications for mining tenements. While access issues are faced by many mining companies and are not considered unusual, the ability of the Company to exploit its deposits through the access to critical infrastructure such as roads, may be affected by the grant of any third party tenements over or near the Company's tenements.

- (o) Native Title
- The tenements in which the Company holds an interest extend over areas which are subject to native title rights of indigenous Australians. The ability of the Company to gain access to some or all of the tenements and to conduct exploration, development and mining operations remains subject to native title rights and the terms of registered native title agreements.
- (p) Reliance on Key Personnel
- The Company's success depends to a significant extent upon its key management personnel, as well as other management and technical personnel including those employed on a contractual basis. The loss of the services of such personnel could have an adverse effect on the performance of the Company. In the event that there is a loss of key personnel, the Company may not be able to locate or employ executives with suitable qualifications and experience.
- (q) Insurance Risk
- The Company currently has in place insurance policies with respect to its operations and personnel. Notwithstanding this, there may be certain circumstances where the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate cover. There are significant exploration and operating risks associated with exploring for gold, nickel and copper, including adverse weather conditions, environmental risks, fire and cyclones, all of which can result in injury to persons as well as damage to plant, equipment and other Company property. The occurrence of an event that is not covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the Company. Insurance of all risks associated with the Company's activities may not always be available, and where available, the costs can be prohibitively high which may prevent such insurance coverage.
- (r) Directors Involvement in Other Mining Interests
- Certain Directors of the Company are, and may continue to be, involved in the mining and mineral exploration industry through their direct and indirect participation in corporations, partnerships or joint ventures which are potential competitors of the Company. Situations may arise in connection with potential acquisitions in investments where the other interest of these Directors and officers may conflict with the interests of the Company. Directors and officers of the Company with conflicts of interest will be subject to and will follow the procedures set out in applicable corporate and securities legislation, regulations, rules and policies.
- (s) Third Party Risks
- The operations of the Company will require the involvement of a number of third parties, including suppliers, contractors and customers, as well as holders of nearby tenements. Financial failure, default, contractual non-compliance or a lack of cooperation on the part of such third parties may have a material adverse impact on the Company's operations and performance. It is not possible for the Company to predict or protect itself against all such risks.

3.3 Mining and Mineral Exploration Industry Risks

- (a) Exploration and Production Risk
- The business of minerals exploration, project development and production involves risks by its very nature. It depends upon the successful exploration, appraisal and development of commercially viable deposits and may be affected by a range of exploration, construction and operational factors including:
- (i) successful design and construction of efficient mining and processing facilities;
 - (ii) availability of competent operational and managerial employees, contractors and consultants and their performance;
 - (iii) availability of efficient transport and marketing services;

- (iv) force majeure circumstances;
- (v) other limitations to activities such as seasonal weather patterns and cyclone activity and other adverse weather conditions such as heavy rainfall, flooding and road closures;
- (vi) engineering difficulties and unanticipated operating difficulties, mechanical failure of operating plant and equipment, industrial and environmental accidents;
- (vii) cost overruns;
- (viii) increases in costs, unavailability or shortages of equipment, spare parts, consumables, competition for manpower or appropriately skilled labour, availability of mill process water, industrial action, disputes or disruptions;
- (ix) inconsistent recovery rates, actual mineralisation consistency, the accuracy of mineral reserve and resource estimates, the physical characteristics of ore including unanticipated changes in grade or tonnage of ore to be mined or processed or reclassification of resources and reserves; and
- (x) outcomes of exploration programs will affect the future performance of the Company and its securities.

(b) Operational Risk

- (i) Mineral exploration activities are subject to numerous risks, many of which are beyond the Company's control, including failure to locate or identify mineral deposits, failure to achieve predicted grades in exploration and mining, operational and technical difficulties encountered in mining, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems which may affect extraction costs, extended interruptions due to inclement or hazardous adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment.
- (ii) While the Company intends to maintain insurance within ranges of coverage consistent with exploration and production industry practice, no assurance can be given that the Company will be able to obtain such insurance coverage at reasonable rates (or at all), or that any coverage it obtains will be adequate and available to cover any such claims.
- (iii) The occurrence of operating risks leading to the curtailment, delay or cancellation of the Company's operations may result in the Company incurring significant financial costs. This may have a material adverse effect on the profitability of the Company and ultimately the value of the company and its securities.

(c) Title Risk

The Company could lose the right to explore, or its interest in, or its title to, its tenements, if licence conditions are not met or if insufficient funds are available to meet expenditure conditions. There is no guarantee that any tenement or conversions to mining leases in which the Company has a current or potential interest in will be granted or that the tenement conditions, obligations and terms can be economically complied with.

The Company is intending to fund its future exploration costs (including minimum expenditure obligations on its tenements) through cash flow from production or through debt or equity capital to be raised in the future. Accordingly, meeting the Company's minimum expenditure obligations is contingent on such cash flow from production or future capital raisings being successful. There is no assurance that the funding will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. If the Company cannot fund the minimum expenditure through cash flows from production or raise further capital as and when required, then the Company may continue to become subject to forfeiture applications in respect of its tenements (see below for further details regarding previous and current forfeiture proceedings).

The Company through its wholly owned subsidiaries, Siberia, Carnegie and Mt Ida, has lodged various objections to applications made by third parties for the grant of new tenements over the tenement areas previously held by the Group. The Company applied to the Minister for summary dismissal of the new application on the basis that those tenements previously held by the Group within the overlapping area expired due to reasons beyond the control of the holder and that certain existing miscellaneous licences currently held by the Group will be injuriously affected by the grant of the new applications. There is no guarantee that these applications will be successful.

(d) Joint Venture Risk

The Company is currently, and may become in the future, a party to joint venture agreements governing the exploration and development of its projects. The Company, in some cases, may not be the manager of the joint venture.

There is a risk that one of the Company's current or future joint venture partners may suffer financial failure or may not act in the best interests of the joint venture. This may have an adverse effect on the interests and prospects of the Company.

(e) Forfeiture Risk

(i) A number of the Company's tenements are subject to forfeiture and other proceedings and should the Company be unsuccessful in defending such proceedings, it will lose its interest in those tenements and this will have an adverse effect on the value of the Company's securities.

(ii) The Company has not, in the past, satisfied the expenditure conditions on all of its tenements. If the Company is unable to meet its tenement expenditure in the future, the Company may forfeit its tenements and this may have an adverse effect on the value of the Company and the Company's securities.

(f) Regulation Risk

Any material adverse changes in government policies or legislation may impact on activities and such matters as access to lands and infrastructure, compliance with environmental legislation (including relating to climate change), taxation and royalties and may affect the viability and profitability of the Company's projects.

(g) Environmental Risk

As with most exploration projects and mining operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment, particularly if advanced exploration or mine development proceeds. It is the Company's intention to conduct its activities to the highest environmental standard, complying with all environmental laws. However, the legal framework governing environmental laws is constantly changing and compliance may be difficult, costly and result in delays to Company's project activities.

3.4 Securities Investment and Market Risks

(a) Securities Investments

Investors should be aware that there are risks associated with any securities investment. The prices at which the Company's Shares trade may be above or below the Offer price, and may fluctuate in response to a number of factors including the risk factors identified in this section as well as securities market factors such as limited liquidity of the Shares and large share price movements due to trading by major shareholders.

(b) Issue of Additional Securities

In certain circumstances, the Directors may issue equity securities without any vote or action by Shareholders. If the Company were to issue any equity securities the percentage ownership of existing Shareholders may be reduced and diluted.

(c) Share Market Fluctuations and Economic Conditions

- (i) The Company's financial performance and ability to execute its business strategy will be impacted by a variety of general market, political, social, stock market and business conditions beyond the Company's control.
- (ii) Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors including but not limited to:
 - (A) general economic outlook;
 - (B) interest rates and inflation rates;
 - (C) currency fluctuations;
 - (D) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors;
 - (E) the demand for, and supply of, capital;
 - (F) political and environmental events; and
 - (G) wars, terrorism or other hostilities.
- (iii) The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general, and resource exploration stocks in particular. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.

(d) Speculative Nature of Investment

- (i) The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially and adversely affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the securities offered under this Prospectus. Therefore, the securities to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those securities.
- (ii) Potential investors should consider that the investment in the Company is speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for securities pursuant to this Prospectus.

4. RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SHARES

4.1 General

- (a) The Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus are ordinary shares and will as from their allotment rank equally in all respects with all ordinary fully paid shares in the Company.
- (b) The rights attaching to the Shares arise from a combination of the Company's Constitution, the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and general law. A copy of the Company's Constitution is available for inspection during business hours at its registered office.
- (c) A summary of the more significant rights is set out below. This summary is not exhaustive nor does it constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of the Company's shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

4.2 Voting Rights

Subject to the Constitution of the Company and any rights or restrictions at the time being attached to a class of shares, at a general meeting of the Company every Shareholder present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative has one vote on a show of hands, and upon a poll, one vote for each Share held by the Shareholder and for each partly paid share held, a fraction of one vote equal to the proportion which the amount paid up bears to the amounts paid or payable on that share. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a casting vote.

4.3 Dividends

Subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and any rights or restrictions attached to a class of shares, the Company may pay dividends as the Directors resolve, but only out of the profits of the Company. The Directors may determine the method and time for payment of the dividend.

4.4 Winding Up

Subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and the rights of holders of shares issued with any special or preferential rights, if the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in specie or in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company and for that purpose may set such value as the liquidator deems fair on any property and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between shareholders or different classes of shareholders.

4.5 Transfer of Shares

Generally, shares are freely transferable, subject to satisfying the requirements of the Listing Rules, ASX Settlement Operating Rules, the ASX Clear Operating Rules and the Corporations Act. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of Shares, other than transfers in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, but only where permitted to do so by the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules, the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, the ASX Clear Operating Rules or under the Company's Constitution.

4.6 Directors

- (a) The Board of Directors is responsible for managing the business of the Company.
- (b) The minimum number of Directors is three. Shareholders may vary the number by ordinary resolution. The Constitution provides that at each annual general meeting, any Director who has held office:
 - (i) without re-election for in excess of three years;
 - (A) past the third annual general meeting following that Director's last appointment or election;

- (B) pursuant to an appointment by the Directors to fill a casual vacancy in the preceding year; or
- (C) if none of the above apply, the Director who has served office the longest without re-election, must retire from office. A retiring Director is eligible for re-election.

4.7 Calls on Shares

Subject to the Corporations Act and the terms of issue of a share, the Company may, at any time, make calls on the shareholders of a share for all, or any part of, the amount unpaid on the share. If a shareholder fails to pay a call or instalment of a call, the Company may, subject to the Corporations Act and Listing Rules, serve a notice requiring payment of so much of the call as is unpaid, together with any interest that has accrued. In the event of non-payment before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

4.8 Further Increases in Capital

Subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules, the ASX Settlement Operating Rules and the ASX Clear Operating Rules and any rights attached to a class of shares, the Company (under the control of the Directors) may allot and issue shares and grant options over shares, on any terms, at any time and for any consideration, as the Directors resolve.

4.9 Variation of Rights Attaching to Shares

Subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules, the ASX Settlement Operating Rules and the ASX Clear Operating Rules and the terms of issue of shares in a particular class, the Company may vary rights attached to shares in that class by either special resolution passed at a general meeting of the holders of the shares in that class, or with the written consent of the holders of at least 75% of the votes in that class.

4.10 General Meeting

Each Shareholder will be entitled to receive notice of, and to attend and vote at, general meetings of the Company and to receive notices, accounts and other documents required to be furnished to Shareholders under the Company's Constitution, the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules.

5. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

5.1 Continuous Disclosure Obligations

The Company is a "disclosing entity" (as defined in section 111 AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities. The Shares which will be issued pursuant to this Prospectus are in the same class of Shares that have been quoted on the official list of the ASX during the 12 months prior to the issue of this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is a "transaction specific prospectus" to which specific content rules under section 713 of the Corporations Act apply. That provision allows the issue of a more concise prospectus in relation to an offer of securities in a class which has been continuously quoted by ASX in the three months prior to the date of the prospectus. In general terms "transaction specific prospectuses" are only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of Shares on the Company and the rights attaching to the Shares. Provided the Company has otherwise complied with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, it is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 12 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of the ASIC; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request between the date of issue of this Prospectus and the Closing Date:
 - (i) the financial statements of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2017;
 - (ii) the financial statements of the Company for the half-year ended 31 December 2017; and
 - (iii) any documents used to notify ASX of information relating to the Company in the period from lodgement of the annual financial statements referred to in paragraph (i) above until the issue of the Prospectus in accordance with the Listing Rules as referred to in section 674(1) of the Corporations Act.

Copies of all documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company can be inspected at the registered office of the Company during normal office hours.

5.6 Corporate Governance

The Board is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and to ensure that the Company is properly managed and controlled. In this regard, the Board is committed to maintaining and promoting the principles of good corporate governance.

The Directors are of the view that the Company has complied in all substantial respects with corporate governance best practice in Australia, including with the ASX Corporate Governance Council Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.
