ASX RELEASE

Completion of Less Than Marketable Parcel Share Sale

Raiden Resources Limited (ASX: RDN) ("Raiden" or "The Company") advises that it has completed the sale of shares for holders of Less Than Marketable Parcels (LTMP) in the Company.

A total of 406 shareholders, with an aggregate of 693,073 shares, participated in the program. The shares were sold at a price of 2 cents per share. The proceeds have been distributed to participants on the 3 May 2018.

Following completion of the LTMP share sale, the Company has approximately 714 shareholders.

The result from the LTMP program will reduce ongoing administrative costs and at the same time, has provided an opportunity for a significant number of shareholders to sell their relatively small shareholdings with no commission payable. Raiden appreciates the support of the investors in purchasing shares as the Company continues to progress its 2018 work program.
