

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

18 June 2018

GAS SUPPLY SWITCHED ON

HIGHLIGHTS

- Argosy confirms gas supply available for Rincon Stage 1 industrial scale pilot plant
- Works continuing to realise principal Stage 1 milestone

Argosy Minerals Limited (ASX: AGY) ("Argosy" or "Company") is pleased to announce the mains gas supply has been officially authorised, is now switched on and being utilised at the Company's Stage 1 industrial scale pilot plant for the Rincon Lithium Project, located in Salta Province, Argentina.

The Company will continue works to realise the principal Stage 1 milestone – a scalable, cost effective chemical process solution to produce consistent battery grade LCE product for all development stages.

This will also comprise processing works to produce consistent quality product to meet potential customer requirements of battery grade LCE product specification and prepare customer samples for their own quality confirmation and testing, and then for subsequent initial commercial sales. Argosy looks forward to making such subsequent announcements when these milestones are achieved.
