Zip announces partnership with Officeworks

Zip Co Limited (ASX: Z1P) (“Zip”, or the “Company”) is delighted to announce a partnership with Officeworks Ltd (“Officeworks”) which will allow customers to make interest-free payments through officeworks.com.au and more than 160 stores nationally, using their Zip digital account.

Officeworks, part of the Wesfarmers group, is Australia's leading retailer and supplier of office products and solutions for the home, business and education segments.

Zip CEO and Managing Director, Larry Diamond said:

“Our relationship with Officeworks represents not only a significant expansion of the Zip payments network, partnering with another multi-billion-dollar business, but also deepens our penetration into the home, school and educational sectors. Customers who use their Zip account at Officeworks can enjoy interest free terms on all their purchases online and in-store.

This partnership builds on Zip commitment to disrupting the established payments landscape by offering Australians payment choice and flexibility for their everyday purchases.”

A progressive in-store rollout will commence early Q1 FY19, followed by an online integration towards the end of Q1 FY19.
