
DRIVEMYCAR ENTERS INTO AFFILIATE PROGRAM AGREEMENT WITH AIRBNB

Collaborate Corporation Limited (ASX:CL8) (Collaborate or the Company) is pleased to advise that its DriveMyCar business unit has entered into an affiliate program agreement with Airbnb.

The host growth affiliate program is a pay-for-performance program for partners who promote hosting on Airbnb. DriveMyCar is one of the first companies to be accepted into the program in Australia. Through the program, DriveMyCar will offer incentives to its customers to list their properties on Airbnb. When eligible property listings are booked, DriveMyCar and its customers will receive referral fees.

DriveMyCar customers are familiar with the benefits of the sharing economy and this offers a unique opportunity for them to also experience the benefits of Airbnb as a host. Many DriveMyCar vehicle owners list their cars for rent while they are travelling and this offer provides an extra incentive to also list their properties with Airbnb. Those who rent a DriveMyCar vehicle while travelling may also wish to list their property to generate extra income.

Chris Noone, Collaborate CEO said "We are pleased to be working with Airbnb to extend the affiliate program offer to customers of DriveMyCar and enable them to enjoy the benefits of sharing their cars and properties. We look forward to further collaborations with Airbnb in the future".
