Request for End of Voluntary Suspension

Questus Limited (Company) entered into voluntary suspension on 27 July 2018, pending the release of an announcement in respect of a potential material acquisition. The Directors of the Company wish to advise the market that the Company will no longer be pursuing the proposed transaction. A non-binding termsheet entered into by the Company with respect to the proposed transaction has also been terminated.

The Company continues to operate in the Affordable Housing Sector and is considering further future opportunities.

The Company wishes to confirm its continued compliance with its disclosure obligations under ASX Listing Rule 3.1.

Yours sincerely

Graeme Goff
Non-Executive Director and Joint Company Secretary
