Q1 FY2019 Activities Update & Appendix 4C

Extensive capital investment program now largely complete; well positioned to maximise sales and leverage scale benefits

Angel Seafood Holdings Ltd (ASX: AS1) (the "Company" or "Angel") is pleased to provide the following quarterly update and Appendix 4C for the period ending 30 September 2018.

A record quarter of sales

Sales for the quarter were over $1.1 million, which is an increase of 121% on the previous quarter, and represents over 107,000 Dozen Oysters. Cash receipts from customers totalled $849,000 (up 70% on the previous quarter), with the remainder of the quarter's sales to appear as cash in the next quarter.

There continues to be very strong demand for Angel's oysters, and all available produce is being sold. Given the current record prices being experienced in the domestic market, as well as the strong demand, Angel will continue to focus its efforts on selling domestically.

Total cash outflows for the quarter were marginally lower than forecast.

Adding scale in the business through the acquisition of high-quality water assets; investment in infrastructure now largely complete

The Company settled on its acquisition of water holdings in Cowell early in the quarter. This increased Angel's owned water holdings in Cowell by 100%, up to 15.4Ha. It is expected that Angel's water holdings in Cowell alone will provide 13 million oysters per annum to the Company's finishing water in Coffin Bay.

In addition, Angel added a further 1Ha of prime oyster conditioning water to its Coffin Bay water holdings. This acquisition doubled Angel's existing holding in the central zone of Coffin Bay, and increased the Company's total holding in Coffin Bay to 6.75Ha. This was a pivotal acquisition of high quality water that allows Angel to build greater scale in its operations.

Angel's investment in infrastructure has created significant capacity and scale in the business. The Company has executed its growth strategy ahead of its Prospectus plans, and is pleased to say that its investment program based on the Prospectus is now largely complete. The focus is now largely on maximising sales and leveraging scale benefits.

Any further major capital expenditure would only be expected to expand the business beyond the aims stated in the Company's Prospectus.

Over the quarter, Angel increased its available debt facilities with NAB. This facility will allow the Company to finance any opportunities that the Board considers appropriate.

Port Lincoln processing facility now operational; commenced export samples

Angel announced the acquisition of a purpose built processing facility in Port Lincoln over the quarter. Whilst some improvements are still ongoing, redevelopment of the facility is now largely complete, and AQIS accreditation has been received. The facility opens up the export market and provides a viable, long term growth opportunity for the Company.

Over the quarter Angel also commenced sending export samples to various Asian and Middle Eastern markets in preparation for the 2019 export season, which is expected to commence in Q4 FY19. The samples have been very well received and feedback to date has been positive.

Outlook

Sales to date for October continue to show a strengthening trend in volumes. Angel has recently confirmed December 2018 orders, and once again demand will outstrip the Company's ability to supply into this peak period.

Current water leases at Cowell and Coffin Bay remain full of stock, and the Company is well positioned to continue to grow its production following the significant capital investment program that is now largely complete. Additionally, mortality levels are tracking favourably compared to budget, allowing oyster stocks to improve over the quarter with many of these to be sold leading up to the Christmas peak period.

In terms of water holdings, Angel is pleased to confirm that water lease improvements and relocations are all tracking on time and slightly under budget. Also, the Company has entered early stage negotiations to further expand its water holdings, which will allow continued scale increases. Angel will keep the market informed as and when there are any updates on this.
