This Prospectus is dated 9 November 2018 and a copy was lodged with the ASIC on that date. The ASIC, ASX and their respective officers take no responsibility for the contents of this Prospectus or the merits of the investment to which this Prospectus relates.

The expiry date of this Prospectus is 13 months after the date this Prospectus was lodged with the ASIC. No Shares will be issued on the basis of this Prospectus after the expiry date.

The Offer is only available to those who are personally invited to accept the Offer. Applications for Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus can only be submitted on an original Application Form which accompanies this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is a transaction specific prospectus for an offer of continuously quoted securities (as defined in the Corporations Act) and has been prepared in accordance with section 713 of the Corporations Act. It does not contain the same level of disclosure as an initial public offering prospectus. In making representations in this Prospectus, regard has been had to the fact that the Company is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and certain matters may reasonably be expected to be known to investors and professional advisers whom potential investors may consult.

3.1 Risk Factors

Potential investors should be aware that subscribing for Shares in the Company involves a number of risks. The key risk factors of which investors should be aware are set out in Section 7 of this Prospectus. These risks together with other general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities not specifically referred to, may affect the value of the Shares in the future. Accordingly, an investment in the Company should be considered highly speculative. Investors should consider consulting their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Shares pursuant to this Prospectus.

3.2 Investors outside Australia

The distribution of this Prospectus in jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted by law and therefore persons into whose possession this document comes should seek advice on and observe any such restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions constitutes a violation of those laws. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer of Shares in any jurisdiction where, or to any person to whom, it would be unlawful to issue in this Prospectus.

3.3 Disclaimer

No person is authorised to give any information or to make any representation in connection with the Offer described in this Prospectus which is not contained in this Prospectus. Any information or representations not so contained may not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Company or any other person in connection with the Offer. You should rely only on information in this Prospectus.

3.4 Consolidation

The Company recently undertook a consolidation of its capital on a 10 for 1 basis. All references to Securities in this document are a reference to Securities on a post-consolidation basis.

4. DETAILS OF THE OFFER

4.1 The Offer

Under this Prospectus, the Company invites investors identified by the Directors to apply for up to 1,333 Shares at an issue price of $0.075 per Share to raise approximately $100 (before expenses).

The Offer will only be extended to specific parties on invitation from the Directors. Application Forms will only be provided by the Company to these parties.

All Shares offered under this Prospectus will rank equally with the Shares then on issue. A summary of the rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares is set out in Section 6.

4.2 Objective

The Company is seeking to raise only a nominal amount under this Prospectus and, accordingly, the purpose of this Prospectus is not to raise capital.

The primary purpose of this Prospectus is to remove any trading restrictions that may have attached to Shares issued by the Company without disclosure under Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act prior to the Closing Date.

Relevantly, section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides that a sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that are quoted securities of the body; and
- (b) either:
 - (i) a prospectus is lodged with the ASIC on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued but before the day on which the sale offer is made; or
 - (ii) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and
- (c) the prospectus is for an offer of securities issued by the body that are in the same class of securities as the relevant securities.

In particular, by issuing this Prospectus, the Company is seeking to cleanse the issue of Shares to British Virgin Islands based investor UBezTT International Holdings (BVI) Ltd (UBezTT) under a strategic placement to be undertaken by the Company, which was announced by the Company on 7 November 2018 (UBezTT Placement).

Under the terms of the UBezTT Placement, the Company will be issuing a total of 23,076,923 Shares, together with one free-attaching unquoted Option exercisable at $0.14 within 36 months of issue (UBezTT Options) for every Share subscribed for, to UBezTT to raise up to $1,500,000.

The Company intends to issue an initial tranche of 17,476,401 Shares to UBezTT shortly following the lodgement of this Prospectus to raise an initial $1,135,966. The issue of a second tranche of 5,600,522 Shares to raise the remaining $364,034 in funds, together with issue of all UBezTT Options, is subject to Shareholder approval (to be sought at a general meeting of the Company which is intended to be convened and held in or around December 2018).

An additional $3,500,000 will also be invested by UBezTT if it elects to subscribe for a 50% equity interest in the Company's wholly owned subsidiary Balama Resources Pty Ltd, which holds the Company's interest in the Company's Caula Project.

For further information please refer to the Company's ASX announcement dated 7 November 2018.

4.3 Minimum Subscription

There is no minimum subscription in respect of the Offer.

4.4 Applications

Applications for Shares must only be made by investors at the direction of the Company and must be made using the Application Form accompanying this Prospectus.

Payment for any Shares applied for must be made in full by cheque made payable to "New Energy Minerals Limited" and crossed "Not Negotiable" in respect of all Shares applied for (at the issue price of $0.075 per Share).

Completed Application Forms and accompanying cheques must be mailed or delivered in the manner specified on the Application Form, so they are received no later than the Closing Date.

4.5 Underwriter

The Offer is not underwritten.

4.6 ASX Listing

Application for Official Quotation of the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus will be made within 7 days of the date of this Prospectus. If ASX does not grant Official Quotation of the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus before the expiration of 3 months after the date of issue of the Prospectus, (or such period as varied by the ASIC), the Company will not issue any Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus and will repay all application monies for those Shares within the time prescribed under the Corporations Act, without interest.

The fact that ASX may grant Official Quotation to the Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the Shares now offered for subscription.

4.7 Issue of Shares

The issue of Shares offered under the Offer will take place as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Application moneys will be held in a separate subscription account until the Shares are issued. This account will be established and kept by the Company in trust for each Applicant. Any interest earned on the application moneys will be for the benefit of the Company and will be retained by the Company irrespective of whether any Shares are issued, and each Applicant waives the right to claim any interest.

The Directors will determine the recipients of all the Shares offered under this Prospectus. The Directors reserve the right to reject any application or to allocate any Applicant fewer Shares than the number applied for.

Where the number of Shares issued is less than the number applied for, the surplus moneys will be returned by cheque as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Where no issue of Shares is made, the amount tendered on application will be returned in full by cheque as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Interest will not be paid on moneys refunded.

4.8 Restrictions on the distribution of the Prospectus

The distribution of this Prospectus outside Australia may be restricted by law and therefore persons into whose possession this document comes should seek advice on and observe any such restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions constitutes a violation of those laws.

This Prospectus does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer of Shares in any place or jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue this Prospectus.

Residents of countries outside Australia should consult their professional advisers as to whether any government or other consents are required, or whether any formalities need to be observed should they wish to make an application for Shares on the basis of this Prospectus. The return of a duly completed Application Form will be taken to constitute a representation and warranty that there has been no breach of such laws and that all approvals and consents have been obtained.

5. PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE OFFER

5.1 Purpose of the Offer

The primary purpose of this Prospectus is to remove any trading restrictions that may have attached to Shares issued by the Company without disclosure under Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act prior to the Closing Date (including prior to the date of this Prospectus).

Under the Offer, an amount of approximately $100 (before expenses) will be raised. All of the funds raised from the Offer will be applied towards the expenses of the Offer. Refer to Section 8.8 for further details relating to the estimated expenses of the Offer.

5.2 Financial Effect of the Offer

Expenses of the Offer are expected to be $10,206 and will be greater than any proceeds that will be received. The expenses of the Offer (exceeding $100) will be met from the Company's existing cash reserves. The Offer will have an effect on the Company's financial position of reducing the cash balance by $10,106, being receipt of funds of $100 less expenses of the Offer of $10,206.

5.3 Effect of the Offer

The effect of the Offer on the capital structure of the Company is set out below. As noted in Section 3.4, all references to Securities in this document are references to Securities on a post-consolidation basis.

6. RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SHARES

The following is a summary of the more significant rights and liabilities attaching to Shares being offered pursuant to this Prospectus. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are set out in the Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

At the Company's forthcoming annual general meeting (scheduled to be held on 28 November 2018), the Company will be seeking Shareholder approval to repeal its current Constitution and adopt a new constitution, which has been updated to reflect the current provisions of the ASX Listing Rules and Corporations Act (Proposed Constitution). The rights summarised below however, will, unless expressed to the contrary, continue to apply following the adoption of the Proposed Constitution.

(a) General meetings

Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution of the Company.

(b) Voting rights

Subject to the Constitution and to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares, at a general meeting:

- (i) on a show of hands, every member present has one vote;
- (ii) on a poll, every member present has:
 - (A) one vote for each fully paid share held by the member and in respect of which the member is entitled to vote; and
 - (B) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share held by the member and in respect of which the member is entitled to vote, equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) on the share bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) on the share.

(c) Dividend rights

Subject to the Corporations Act and the Constitution, and any rights or restrictions attached to a Share or class of Shares, the directors may declare and pay dividends, which shall be payable in the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) on the Share bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) on the Share.

The directors may rescind a decision to pay a dividend if they decide, before the payment date, that the Company's financial position no longer justifies the payment.

Interest is not payable by the Company in respect of any dividend.

Subject to the Constitution, the Directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company reserves or provisions for any purpose as they think fit.

Subject to the Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, the Directors may implement a dividend reinvestment plan on the terms they resolve under which any dividend due to members who participate in the plan on their Shares or any class of Shares may be applied in subscribing for Securities of the Company (or, in the case of the Proposed Constitution, subscribing for Shares). The Directors may amend, suspend or terminate a dividend reinvestment plan implemented by them.

(d) Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution:

- (i) divide among the members the whole or any part of the property of the Company; and
- (ii) determine how the division is to be carried out as between the members or different classes of members.

(e) Shareholder liability

As the Shares issued will be fully paid Shares, they will not be subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of shares

Generally, Shares in the Company are freely transferable, subject to formal requirements, the registration of the transfer not resulting in a contravention of or failure to observe the provisions of a law of Australia and the transfer not being in breach of the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

(g) Future increase in capital

Subject to restrictions on the issue or grant of securities contained in the ASX Listing Rules, ASX Settlement Operating Rules, the Constitution and the Corporations Act (and without affecting any special right previously conferred on the holder of an existing Share or class of Shares), the Directors have the right to issue Shares or grant Options over unissued shares to any person and they may do so at such times as they think fit.

Such Shares may have preferred, deferred or other special rights or special restrictions about dividends, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the directors think fit.

(h) Variation of rights

The rights attached to any class of Shares may, unless their terms of issue state otherwise, be varied:

- (i) with the written consent of the holders of 75% of the Shares of the class; or
- (ii) by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of Shares of the class.

(i) Alteration of constitution

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

7. RISK FACTORS

7.1 Introduction

The Shares offered under this Prospectus are considered highly speculative. An investment in the Company is not risk free and the Directors strongly recommend potential investors to consider the risk factors described below, together with information contained elsewhere in this Prospectus and to consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Shares pursuant to this Prospectus.

There are specific risks which relate directly to the Company's business. In addition, there are other general risks, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. The risks identified in this Section, or other risk factors, may have a material impact on the financial performance of the Company and the market price of Shares.

The following is not intended to be an exhaustive list of the risk factors to which the Company is exposed.

7.2 Company specific

(a) Going concern risk

The Company's financial report for the half year period ended 30 June 2018 (released to ASX on 28 September 2018) (2018 Annual Report) includes a note on the financial condition of the Company and the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the consolidated entity's ability to continue as a going concern.

Notwithstanding this uncertainty, the Directors believe that with the funds generated under its recent placement (announced to ASX on 13 August 2018), and the funds to be generated from the UBezTT Placement (announced on 7 November 2018), the Company will have sufficient funds to adequately meet the Company's current expenditure commitments and short-term working capital requirements. However, and as noted in the 2018 Annual Report, further funding will be required over the next 12 months to meet the working capital costs of the Company. Please refer to Section 7.2(g) for further details.

(b) Arena statutory demand

The Company is currently exposed to a litigation risk in respect of an existing dispute with key investor, Arena Structured Private Investments (Cayman) LLC (Arena).

On 6 November 2018 the Company announced it had been served with a statutory demand under the Corporations Act by Arena. The demand relates to debts allegedly owed by the Company to Arena under the terms of the Convertible Note Deed between the Company and Arena. The statutory demand claims an amount of $5.1 million is owing to Arena (which appears to include a claim for around $2.5 million in termination payments).

The Company intends to repay in cash the amounts it considers to be owing to Arena (including all interest) as soon as possible and the Company is actively engaging with potential investors regarding a refinancing and repayment of the Arena loan. Arena currently holds

Convertible Notes with a face value of $2.5 million (excluding interest of approximately $104,000).

As announced on 15 August 2018, it is the Company's view that the termination payment is not payable to Arena. The Company is also of the view that it has claims against Arena which exceed the value of Arena's debt. The Company is currently seeking legal advice to determine its next steps but anticipates applying to set aside the statutory demand.

Whilst the Company anticipates applying to set aside the statutory demand, there remains a strong risk that, if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at a commercial level, further formal claims or proceedings will be made which involve the Company. This could have a material impact on the financial position of the Company, who could incur legal costs associated with defending any such claim.

(c) Absence of agreements with minority holders

The Company does not wholly own any of the licences in which it has an interest, nor does it hold a direct interest in any of those licences.

Contractual terms exist in relation to the initial exploration activities proposed by the Company but subsequent to the sole funding periods there are currently no formal agreements governing the joint venture relationship of the various parties. The Company intends to execute further formal agreements (e.g. shareholder agreements) with the various licence holders and minority shareholders of the special purpose vehicles holding the licences during the sole funding period, however, where a formal agreement is not entered the ability of the Company to proceed with further activities on the licences may be impaired.

In order for the Company to be able to achieve its objectives the Company is reliant on the holders of the remaining interests (direct or indirect) in those licences to comply with their contractual obligations under the applicable contract. Where the other party fails to comply with its obligations there is a possibility, depending on the nature of the breach, that title to the licences could be forfeited or fines or other sanctions imposed. It may then be necessary for the Company to approach a court to seek a legal remedy. Legal action can be costly and there can be no guarantee that a legal remedy will be ultimately granted on the appropriate terms. The Company has no current reason to believe that any such party will not satisfy its obligations under the applicable contract.

(d) Risks associated with operating in Mozambique

The vanadium-graphite projects operated by the Company are located in Mozambique, which is considered to be a developing country and as such subject to emerging legal and political systems compared with the system in place in Australia. Investing and operating in foreign jurisdictions carry political, economic and other uncertainties, including, but not limited to, changes in mining and exploration policies or the personnel administering them, nationalisation or expropriation of property, cancellation or modification of contractual risk, foreign exchange restrictions, currency exchange rate fluctuation, royalty and tax increase and other risks arising out of foreign government sovereignty over the areas in which the Company's operations will be conducted. Any of these factors could result in conditions that delay or in fact prevent the Company from exploring or ultimately developing any of the foreign projects.

Under Mozambican law between 5% and 20% of the share capital of a Mozambican mining company must be reserved for disposal preferentially to Mozambican individuals.

Mozambican law also requires that direct or indirect transfer of participating interests, titles or mining rights, including the transfer of shares (whether listed on an exchange or not), irrespective of their being a change of control, is subject to prior authorisation from the Government of Mozambique. Any such transaction that proceeds without authorisation is in violation of Mozambican law and not enforceable in Mozambique. Nevertheless, such violation does not risk the title to the licences, the ability to conduct activities on the licences, to apply for renewal or transfer of the licences. In respect of the renewal or transfer of the licences in which the Company has an interest, the mining authority of Mozambique may require the regularisation of previous unauthorised transfers prior to approval of the renewal or transfer.

The Company is exposed to the risks of operating in such a jurisdiction, including, without limitation:

- (i) political difficulties in obtaining effective legal redress in the courts whether in respect of a breach of law or regulation or in an ownership dispute;
- (ii) a higher degree of discretion held by various government officials or agencies;
- (iii) the lack of political or administrative guidance on implementing applicable rules and regulations, particularly in relation to taxation and property rights;
- (iv) inconsistencies or conflicts between and within various laws, regulations, decrees, orders and resolutions; or
- (v) relative inexperience of the judiciary and court in matters affecting the Company.

The commitment to local business people, government officials and the judicial system to abide by legal requirements and negotiated agreements may be more uncertain, creating particular concerns with respect to licences and agreements for business. These may be susceptible to revision or cancellation and legal redress may be uncertain or delayed.

No assurance can be given regarding future stability in Mozambique or any other country in which the Company may have an interest.

(e) Tenure and access for tenements in Mozambique

Mining and exploration tenements in Mozambique are subject to periodic renewal. Where a licensee has met the terms of the grant, renewal will not be denied. However, if development conditions are not met there is no guarantee that current or future tenements or future applications for production tenements will be approved.

(f) Environmental and other regulatory risks

Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner which will likely require stricter standard and enforcement, increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees. There can be no assurance that future changes in environmental regulations in Mozambique, if any, will not materially and adversely affect the Company's business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Various governmental approvals and permits will also be required in connection with various aspects of the Company's operations from time to time. To the extent such approvals or permits are required and not obtained, the Company may be delayed or prevented from proceeding with planned exploration or development.

(g) Additional requirements for capital risk

The Company will require further financing in addition to amounts recently raised. Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, the Company may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its mining and exploration programmes as the case may be. There is however no guarantee that the Company will be able to secure any additional funding or be able to secure funding on terms favourable to the Company.

(h) Exploration and development risks

The business of vanadium-graphite exploration, project development and production, by its nature, contains elements of significant risk with no guarantee of success. Ultimate and continuous success of these activities is dependent on many factors such as:

- (i) the discovery and/or acquisition of economically recoverable reserves;
- (ii) access to adequate capital for project development;
- (iii) design and construction of efficient development and production infrastructure within capital expenditure budgets;
- (iv) securing and maintaining title to interests;
- (v) obtaining consents and approvals necessary for the conduct of exploration, development and production; and
- (vi) access to competent operational management and prudent financial administration, including the availability and reliability of appropriately skilled and experienced employees, contractors and consultants.

Whether or not income will result from the existing projects or any new assets acquired by the Company, undergoing an exploration and development program depends on successful exploration and establishment of production facilities. Factors including costs and reliability and commodity prices affect successful project development and operations.

The Company's ability to commercially exploit the licences in which it has an interest will also depend on a robust transport and service infrastructure network in Mozambique to deliver equipment, supplies and resources to and from any mining operations. Development of such transport or service infrastructure may be unpredictable and not up to the standard generally seen in more developed nations. Material delays in the transportation of equipment, supplies and resources may delay the development of the licences and have an adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Mining activities carry risk and as such, activities may be curtailed, delayed or cancelled as a result of weather conditions, mechanical difficulties, shortages or delays in the delivery of equipment.

Industry operating risks include fire, explosions, industrial disputes, unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment, mechanical failure or breakdown and environmental hazards such as accidental spills or leakages, or geological uncertainty. The occurrence of any of these risks could result in legal proceedings against the Company and substantial losses to the Company due to injury or loss of life, damage to or destruction of property, natural resources or equipment, pollution or other environmental damage, clean-up responsibilities, regulatory investigation, and penalties or suspension of operations. Damage occurring to third parties as a result of such risks may give rise to claims against the Company.

There is no assurance that any exploration on current or future interests will result in the discovery of an economic deposits. Even if an apparently viable deposit is identified, there is no guarantee that it can be economically developed. Until the Company is able to realise value from its projects it is likely to incur ongoing operating losses.

(i) Competition risk

The Company will be participating in a highly competitive market, however there are few, if any, specific competitors who have a dominant market share and dictate the structure or practices in the market.

The fact that there are no dominant competitors makes market entry and penetration easier but not without the need to ensure that the Company can position and differentiate itself to gain market share. There is no certainty that the Company will be successful in this market.

Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and business.

(j) Reliance on key personnel and the need to attract qualified staff

The Company's success depends on the core competencies of its Directors and management team to operate in the resource and mining industry. The loss of one or more of these persons could adversely affect the growth prospects, operating results and financial performance of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to attract or retain sufficiently qualified personnel on a timely basis or retain its key management personnel.

Further, in order to undertake the Company's planned development activities, it may require additional financial, administrative, permitting and operational personnel. While the Company believes that it will be successful in attracting and retaining qualified personnel, there can be no assurance of such success.

(k) Workforce health risks

In addition, malaria and other diseases represent a serious threat to maintaining a skilled workforce in the mining industry throughout Africa. Malaria and other diseases are a major healthcare challenge faced by the Company's operations in Mozambique. There can be no assurance that the Company will not lose members of its workforce, workforce man hours or incur increased medical costs which may have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations.

7.3 General risks

(a) Economic

General economic conditions, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration, development and production activities, as well as on its ability to fund those activities.

(b) Commodity Price Risk

If the Company achieves success leading to mineral production, the revenue it will derive through the sale of commodities exposes the potential income of the Company to commodity price and exchange rate risks. Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include supply and demand fluctuations for precious and base metals, technological advancements, forward selling activities and other macro-economic factors.

Furthermore, international prices of various commodities are denominated in United States dollars, whereas the corporate overhead expenditure of the Company are and will be taken into account in Australian currency, exposing the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the United States dollar and the Australian dollar as determined in international markets.

(c) Government policy changes

Adverse changes in government policies or legislation may affect ownership of mineral interests, taxation, royalties, land access, labour relations, and exploration, development and mining activities of the Company. It is possible that the current systems of exploration, development and mine permitting in Mozambique may change, resulting in impairment of rights and possibly expropriation of the Company's properties without adequate compensation.

(d) Risk of international operations generally

International sales and operations are subject to a number of risks, including:

- (i) potential difficulties in enforcing agreements (including joint venture agreements) and collecting receivables through foreign local systems;
- (ii) potential difficulties in protecting intellectual property;
- (iii) increases in costs for transportation and shipping; and
- (iv) restrictive governmental actions, such as imposition of trade quotas, tariffs and other taxes.

Any of these factors could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

(e) Market conditions

Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as:

- (i) general economic outlook;
- (ii) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation;
- (iii) interest rates and inflation rates;
- (iv) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors;
- (v) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and
- (vi) terrorism or other hostilities.

The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general and resource exploration stocks in particular. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.

(f) Dividends

Any future determination as to the payment of dividends by the Company will be at the discretion of the Directors and will depend on the financial condition of the Company, future capital requirements and general business and other factors considered relevant by the Directors. No assurance in relation to the payment of dividends or franking credits attaching to dividends can be given by the Company.

(g) Litigation

The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims (note also the risk factor in Section 7.2(b) in relation to Arena).

Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, financial performance and financial position. The Company is not currently engaged in any litigation.

(h) Taxation

The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All potential investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.

7.4 Speculative investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the Shares offered under this Prospectus.

Therefore, the Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those Shares.

Potential investors should consider that the investment in the Company is speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Shares pursuant to this Prospectus.

8. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

8.1 Litigation

The Company is currently exposed to a litigation risk in respect of an existing dispute with key investor, Arena Structured Private Investments (Cayman) LLC (Arena).

On 6 November 2018 the Company announced it had been served with a statutory demand under the Corporations Act by Arena. The demand relates to debts allegedly owed by the Company to Arena under the terms of the Convertible Note Deed between the Company and Arena. The statutory demand claims an amount of $5.1 million is owing to Arena (which appears to include a claim for around $2.5 million in termination payments).

The Company intends to repay in cash the amounts it considers to be owing to Arena (including all interest) as soon as possible and the Company is actively engaging with potential investors regarding a refinancing and repayment of the Arena loan. Arena currently holds Convertible Notes with a face value of $2.5 million (excluding interest of approximately $104,000).

As announced on 15 August 2018, it is the Company's view that the termination payment is not payable to Arena. The Company is also of the view that it has claims against Arena which exceed the value of Arena's debt. The Company is currently seeking legal advice to determine its next steps but anticipates applying to set aside the statutory demand.

Except as disclosed above, as at the date of this Prospectus, the Company is not involved in any legal proceedings and the Directors are not aware of any legal proceedings pending or threatened against the Company.

8.2 Continuous Disclosure Obligations

The Company is a "disclosing entity" (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities.

This Prospectus is a "transaction specific prospectus". In general terms a "transaction specific prospectus" is only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on a company and the rights attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 3 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act, states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) copies of documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of the ASIC; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request between the date of issue of this Prospectus and the Closing Date:
 - (i) the annual financial report most recently lodged by the Company with the ASIC;
 - (ii) any half-year financial report lodged by the Company with the ASIC after the lodgement of the annual financial report referred to in (i) and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with the ASIC; and
 - (iii) any continuous disclosure documents given by the Company to ASX in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules as referred to in section 674(1) of the Corporations Act after the lodgement of the annual financial report referred to in (i) and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with the ASIC.

Copies of all documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company can be inspected at the registered office of the Company during normal office hours.

Details of documents lodged by the Company with ASX since the date of lodgement of the Company's 2018 Annual Report and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with the ASIC are set out in the table below.
