CEVA Logistics and Orcoda Sign Partnership

Orcoda Limited (ASX: ODA) ('Orcoda' or 'the Company'), the resources, healthcare, and transport logistics optimisation company, is pleased to announce that it has signed a partnership agreement with CEVA Logistics Australia ("CEVA"). CEVA is a global force in supply chain management that operates 17 regional clusters and employs 42,000 people around the world.

Orcoda has been serving CEVA since 2015 in the areas of ground transport, vehicle logistics as well as the more specialised areas of transport modelling, scheduling, allocation, route planning and load optimisation. The Orcoda logistics management system has been customised to incorporate CEVA's operational, compliance, customer and service requirements to ensure efficient metro pick-up and delivery.

The new contract has been structured to provide a frame agreement which can be easily implemented into CEVA's diverse project-based contracts across different industry sectors.

"We are extremely pleased to continue our partnership with CEVA, a global supply chain leader. CEVA management have been very clear in building their logistics industry disruption model, and we are proud that Orcoda has been selected as their partner in transport planning and optimisation," Managing Director, Brendan Mason said.
