Details of cessation of relevant interest in voting securities of East Energy Resources Limited

1. On 20 December 2018 ("Restructuring Effective Date") Noble Group Limited ("Noble") concluded the implementation of a restructuring of its financial indebtedness and corporate structure (the "Restructuring"). The Restructuring was undertaken pursuant to an English and Bermuda court sanctioned scheme of arrangement approved by both shareholders and creditors of Noble that enabled Noble to restructure its debt of approximately US$3.5bn owed to its creditors (the "Scheme"). Finalisation of the Restructuring was facilitated by an officer of the Bermuda court who was appointed following an order of the Bermuda court granted on 14 December 2018.
  2. In order to implement the Restructuring and deliver the equity owed to Noble's creditors pursuant to the terms of the Scheme, Noble and Noble Group Holdings Limited ("New Noble") (among others) entered into a series of agreements to dispose of the majority of the assets and operations of Noble to New Noble. In particular, Noble Intermediate Hold Co Limited (being the entity holding the majority of the assets and operations of Noble) ("Intermediate Hold Co") was transferred from Noble to New Noble (the "Upstream Transaction").
  3. As stated in this Form 605, Maylion Pty Limited holds 2,990,419,558 fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of East Energy Resources Limited (ASX:EER) amounting to a voting power of 93.42% ("EER Shares").
  4. As noted above and as a consequence of the Upstream Transaction, Noble and has disposed the majority of its assets, including Maylion (formerly a wholly owned subsidiary of Noble). Noble Resources currently remains a wholly owned subsidiary of Noble. Consequently, Noble and Noble Resources have ceased to have a relevant interest in the EER Shares.
