

Corporate Update

HomeStay Care Limited (ASX: HSC) (“HomeStay” or “Company”), in-home care technology company, advises that Mr Aga Manhao has resigned as chief executive officer of the Company. The Company thanks Mr Manhao for his contribution throughout the listing process and in building the HomeStay team, wishing him well in the future. The Company has a committed and experienced management team who will continue to work with the board and executive director in the interim.

For Investor Enquiries, please contact:

investor@homestay.care

About HomeStay:

HomeStay is an in-home care technology Company. Its Internet of Things platform uses wearables, sensors, artificial intelligence, machine learning and other advanced innovations to provide ongoing monitoring, real-time alerts and preventative interventions. By integrating tailored solutions, HomeStay turns houses into smart homes designed to provide seniors and people living with disabilities with the dignity, privacy and independence they need. www.homestay.care