Relevantly, Section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides that a sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that are quoted securities of the body; and
- (b) either:
 - (i) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued but before the day on which the sale offer is made; or
 - (ii) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and

Until allotment and issue of the Shares under this Prospectus, the application monies will be held in trust in a separate bank account maintained for that purpose only. If approval is not granted by ASX within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus, the Company will not allot or issue the Shares. A decision by ASX to grant official quotation of the Share is not to be taken in any way as an indication of ASX's view as to the merits of the Company, or the Shares now offered for subscription.

1.9 Overseas investors

This Prospectus does not constitute an offer of securities in any jurisdiction where, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to issue the Prospectus or make the Offer. No action has been taken to register or qualify the Shares or the Offer or otherwise to permit an offering of securities to any jurisdiction outside Australia.

If an applicant becomes a security holder of the Company, the Corporations Act requires the Company to include information about the security holder (name, address and details of the securities held) in its public register. This information must remain in the register even if that person ceases to be a security holder of the Company. Information contained in the Company's registers is also used to facilitate distribution payments and corporate communications (including the Company's financial results, annual reports and other information that the Company may wish to communicate to its security holders) and compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements.

If you do not provide the information required on the Application Form, the Company may not be able to accept or process your application.

1.13 Forward Looking Statements

This Prospectus contains forward-looking statements, which are identified by words such as 'may', 'could', 'believes', 'estimates', 'targets', 'expects', or 'intends' and such other similar words that involve risks and uncertainties.

These statements are based on an assessment of present economic and operating conditions, and on a number of assumptions regarding future events and actions that, as at the date of this Prospectus, are expected to take place.

Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Company and the Directors.

The Company has no intention to update or revise forward-looking statements, or to publish prospective financial information in the future, regardless of whether new information, future events or any other factors affect the information contained in this Prospectus, except where required by law.

These forward-looking statements are subject to various risk factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from the results expressed or anticipated in these statements. These risk factors are set out in Section 3 of this Prospectus.

2 EFFECT OF THE OFFER ON THE COMPANY

2.1 Principal effects

Notes:

1. At the Company's 2017 Annual General Meeting held on 29 November 2017, shareholders approved the issue of 5,000,000 options to Gerhardus Kielenstyn on the following terms. These options were issued on 22 December 2017 as follows.

| Tranche | Number of Options | Exercise Price | Vesting Condition |
|-----------|-------------------|----------------|---|
| Tranche 1 | 1,000,000 | $0.12 | The Board is satisfied, acting reasonably, that the Company has produced 100,000 tonnes of coal. |
| Tranche 2 | 4,000,000 | $0.15 | The Board is satisfied, acting reasonably, that the Company is consistently operating at a production rate for three months of 45,000 tonnes of coal per month. |

2. At the Company's 2017 Annual General Meeting held on 29 November 2017, shareholders approved the issue to Platinum Entities or their nominees 75 million Options with a 5 year term and an exercise price of 1.6 cents, vesting on completion of the conversion of the Platinum Entities' debt owing to a royalty (Platinum Options), as part of the Debt Restructure Transaction. The remaining 50% have been transferred to Aahana Mineral Resources SDN BHD.
3. At the Company's General Meeting held on 21 September 2018, shareholders approved the issue of 1,000,000 Options with a 3 year term and an exercise price of $0.045, for consulting services provided to the Company.

5. At the Company's 2018 Annual General Meeting held on 30 November 2018, shareholders approved the issue to Platinum Entities or their nominees 37.5 million Options with a 5 year term and an exercise price of 1.6 cents (New Platinum Options), as part of the Debt Restructure Transaction.

2.3 Financial effect of the Offer

After paying for the expenses of the Offer of approximately $8,000, there will be no proceeds from the Offer. The expenses of the Offer will be met from the Company's existing cash reserves. The Offer will affect the Company's financial position, being receipt of funds of $0.20 less expenses of the Offer of $8,000. As the issue of the two (2) Shares under this Prospectus will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, a pro-forma statement of financial position of the Company showing the financial effect of the Offer has not been included in this Prospectus.

2.4 Effect of the Offer on control

The Offer will not have an impact on control of the Company.

3 RISK FACTORS

As with any share investment, there are risks associated with an investment in the Company. The numerous risk factors are both of a specific and a general nature. Some can be mitigated using safeguards and appropriate systems and controls, but some are outside the control of the Company and its Directors and cannot be mitigated.

This Section 3 identifies the major areas of risk identified by the Directors associated with an investment in the Company, but should not be taken as an exhaustive list of the risk factors to which the Company and its Shareholders are exposed now or may be in the future. You should read the entire Prospectus and consult your professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus.

3.1 Specific risks

The risks outlined below are specific to the Company's operations and to the industry in which the Company operates.

(a) Completion of Project Finance

- (i) As announced on ASX on 11 May 2018, the Company has entered into a Term Sheet with Domain International Holdings Limited for the funding of the BBM Coking Coal Project. The proposed terms of the agreement are set out in that announcement. As stated in the announcement, the current proposal is non-binding unless an initial payment of $1 million is received and it is conditional on formal documentation, shareholder and regulatory approvals, where required. Consequently, there is a risk that this transaction may not complete and the Company will need to access further capital for the development of its BBM operations (see below).
- (ii) As announced on ASX on 1 August 2018 the Company has executed a Term Sheet with Aahana Global Resources & Investment Pte Ltd to fully fund the development of the BBM PCI Project. There is a risk that this transaction may not complete and the Company will need to access further capital for the development of its BBM operations (see below).
- (iii) On 21 September 2018 the Company announced principles surrounding a proposal by BMA Group to fund construction of the BBM PCI Project and BBM Coking Coal Project, subject to a final agreement. There is a risk that this transaction may not complete and the Company will need to access further capital for the development of its BBM operations (see below).

(b) Additional requirements for capital

Whilst the Company has been in the process of securing funding, trade and other payables have increased by almost US$1,000,000 to 31 December 2018 (refer 31 December 2018 half-year report) since 30 June 2018.

Unless a financing arrangement is completed in a timely manner, Cokal may need to enter into delayed payment arrangements with its trade creditors and seek finance from new sources to fund its current liabilities and future construction of both BBM Projects.

The proposed issue of Shares described under section 1.2 reduces the Company's placement capacity (being its ability to issue shares without shareholder approval under the Listing Rules) to 143,359,863 (66,543,702 securities under Listing Rule 7.1 and 76,816,161 Shares under Listing Rule 7.1A) until that capacity is refreshed. The reduced placement capacity will diminish the Company's ability to raise equity capital quickly without shareholder approval.

The Company has been in the process of securing funding. Unless a financing arrangement is completed in a timely manner, Cokal may need to enter into delayed payment arrangements with its trade creditors and seek finance from new sources to fund its current liabilities and future construction of both BBM Projects.

There is no guarantee that a financing arrangement will complete in a timely manner or at all and there can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to access alternative funding or, more generally, the funds necessary to finance its activities and successfully achieve all the objectives of the Company's overall business strategy on terms acceptable to the Company, or at all. Any equity financing may be dilutive to shareholders and any debt financing, if available, may involve restrictive covenants, which may limit the Company's operations and business strategy.

The Company's failure to raise capital, if and when needed, could delay or suspend the Company's business strategy and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and its ability to pay its debts as and when they fall due.

(c) Coal sales / Commodity Risk

If the Company's existing projects are developed further to production, its revenue will be derived from the sale of coal. Therefore, its earnings will be closely related to the price and arrangements it enters into for sale of its products. Product prices fluctuate and are affected by factors including the relationship between global supply and demand, forward selling by producers, the cost of production and general economic conditions, such as inflation, interest rates and currency exchange rates.

Fluctuations in coal prices will significantly affect the Company's future operations and profitability. Declines in the prices for coal could cause the continued development of, and eventually the commercial production from, the Company's projects to be rendered uneconomic.

The Company gives no assurance that fluctuations in commodity prices will not affect the timing and viability of its projects.

(d) General operating risk

Cokal's forecast production at the BBM operations may encounter operational difficulties that may impact on the amount of coal produced, delay coal deliveries or increase the cost of mining for a varying length of time. Such difficulties include weather and natural disasters, unexpected maintenance or technical problems and failure of key equipment. Other difficulties may arise as a result of variations in mining conditions from those projected, such as variations in coal seam thickness and quality, variations in the amount of rock and soil overlaying a coal deposit, variations in rock and other natural materials and variations in geological conditions.

These unforeseen geological difficulties could cause a loss of revenue due to lower production than expected, higher operating and maintenance costs and/or ongoing unplanned capital expenditure. Any such geological conditions may adversely affect Cokal's financial performance.

(e) Development, mining and processing risks

The future profitability of the Company and the value of its Shares are directly related to project development. Until the Company can realise ongoing value from its projects, through continued production and sales, operating costs cannot be covered. There are risks in undertaking development activities including:

- access to adequate capital for project development;
- design and construction of efficient development and production infrastructure within capital expenditure budgets;
- securing and maintaining title to tenements;
- obtaining regulatory consents and approvals (including environmental) necessary for the Company's development and production activities;
- local community actions;
- access to competent operational management and prudent financial administration, including the availability and reliability of appropriate skilled and experienced employees, contractors and consultants; and
- adverse weather conditions, mechanical difficulties, shortages or delays in the delivery.

Whether or not continual income will result from projects undergoing development programs depends on successful establishment of production facilities and the negotiation of sales agreements on suitable commercial terms with acceptable counterparty(s). Factors including costs, actual mineralisation, consistency and reliability of ore grades and commodity prices affect successful development and mining operations.

Industry operating risks include fire, explosions, industrial disputes, unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment, mechanical failure or breakdown, environmental hazards such as accidental spills or leakage of liquids, gas leaks, ruptures, discharges of toxic gases or geological uncertainty. The occurrence of any of these risks could result in legal proceedings against the Company and substantial losses to the Company due to injury or loss of life, damage to or destruction of property, natural resources or equipment, pollution or other environmental damage, clean-up responsibilities, regulatory investigation, penalties or suspension of operations. Damage occurring to third parties as a result of such risks may give rise to claims against the Company.

These factors affect the Company's ability to establish mining operations, continue with its projects, earn income from its operations and will affect the Share price.

(f) Resource and reserve estimates

Resource and reserve estimates (refer Company's announcement 1 August 2017) are stated to the JORC Code and are expressions of judgement based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. Often these estimates were appropriate when made, but may change significantly when new information becomes available. There are risks associated with such estimates, including that coal mined may be of different quality, tonnage or strip ratio from the estimates. Resource and reserve estimates are necessarily imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may ultimately prove to be inaccurate and require adjustment. Adjustments to resources and reserves could affect Cokal's development and mining plans.

(g) Country risk

The Company's operations in Indonesia are exposed to various levels of political, economic and other risks and uncertainties associated with operating in a foreign jurisdiction. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, currency exchange rates, high rates of inflation, labour unrest, social unrest, civil disobedience, renegotiation or nullification of existing concessions, licences, permits and contracts, changes in taxation policies, changing political conditions, war and civil conflict, lack of law enforcement, currency controls and governmental regulations that favour or require the awarding of contracts to local contractors or require foreign contractors to employ citizens of, or purchase supplies from, a particular jurisdiction.

Changes, if any, in mining or investment policies or shifts in political attitude in Indonesia may adversely affect the Company's operations or profitability. Operations may be affected in varying degrees by government regulations with respect to, but not limited to, restrictions on production, price controls, export controls, currency remittance, income taxes, foreign investment, maintenance of claims, environmental legislation, land use, land claims of local people, water use and mine safety. Failure to comply strictly with applicable laws, regulations and local practices relating to mineral right applications and tenure, could result in loss, reduction or expropriation of interests.

(h) Tenement rights

As noted above, the Company's operations and mineral permits are located in Indonesia and the Company's exploration permits are subject to the Mining Code and Mining Regulations. Exploration permits and other mining permits are granted for a specific term and their grant, transfer and renewal are subject to Ministerial or Presidential discretion.

(i) Exchange rate risk

The revenues and earnings of the Company will be exposed to exchange rate fluctuations, particularly as international prices of coal are denominated in US$, whereas a significant portion of its operating expenses will be incurred in US$, Australian or local currency. Fluctuations in exchange rates between currencies in which the Company invests, reports, incur costs, purchases capital equipment or derives revenue may cause fluctuations in the Company's financial results that are not necessarily related to the Company's underlying operations. For example, a weakening in the value of the US$ as compared to the Australian dollar would have an effect of reducing the Australian dollar value of US$ coal sales. Alternatively, a weakening of the Australian dollar as compared to the US$ would have an effect of increasing the Australian dollar cost of expenses incurred in US$. This may adversely affect the Company's financial position and operating results.

(j) Transport

It is anticipated that coal from the BBM will use the Barito River to barge product.

A number of factors could disrupt transport services, including weather related problems, port capacity constraints, key equipment and infrastructure failures.

(k) Reliance on Third Parties

As stated in the Company's ASX announcement, it is assumed that contractors will perform all mining functions for Cokal in respect of the BBM Project. There is no guarantee that an appropriate contractor will be engaged on terms acceptable to Cokal. Cokal will also be reliant on contractors for the success of operations. While the situation is normal for the mining industry, problems caused by third parties may arise which have the potential to impact the performance of Cokal.

The risks outlined below are some of the general risks that may affect an investment in the Company.

(l) Securities investments and share market conditions

There are risks associated with any securities investment. The prices at which the securities trade may fluctuate in response to a number of factors.

Furthermore, the stock market may experience extreme price and volume fluctuations that may be unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of a company. These factors may materially adversely affect the market price of the securities of the Company regardless of the Company's operational performance. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company, or any return of an investment in the Company.

(m) Economic risk

Changes in both Australia and world economic conditions may adversely affect the financial performance of the Company. Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, industrial disruption and economic growth may impact on future operations and earnings.

(n) Competition

Cokal faces competition from other producers of coal. An increase in production or reduction in price of competing coals from both Indonesia and internationally may adversely impact Cokal's ability to sell its coal products and the price attained for sales.

The development of new steel making technologies or practices may also lead to greater use of lower quality coals or other carbons sources in substitution for the metallurgical coals produced by Cokal. This is likely to lower demand for and the price of metallurgical coals produced by Cokal.

Cokal may also encounter competition from other mining companies for the acquisition of new projects to increase coal production. This competition may impact the ability of Cokal to acquire interests in new or existing mines on acceptable terms.

3.2 Fraud and Misappropriation

The Company refers to its Annual Report and announcements of 26 October 2018, 12 November 2018 and 28 November 2018 concerning financial irregularities and fraudulent activity. The Board has concluded investigations concerning the irregularities and activities which concern the Company's Chief Financial Officer and seven Cokal employees having received monies from a supplier of barging services to the Company in Indonesia. Cokal employees received money from the supplier totalling approximately US$110,000.

In addition, the Company was charged for services not incurred and/or charged non-arm's length amounts for barging services provided by that supplier.

The results of the investigation are such that, as at 30 June 2018, barging expenses are overstated by US$344,000, creditors overstated by US$234,000 and receivables understated by US$110,000.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

4.4 Rights attaching to Shares

The Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus will rank equally in all respects with existing Shares upon issue. Full details of the rights attaching to the Shares are set out in its Constitution, a copy of which can be inspected at the Company's registered office.

The following is a summary of the principal rights that attach to the Shares under the Constitution.

|-----------------------------|--|
| Voting | Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any class of shares at a meeting of members: (1) on a show of hands, each member has 1 vote; and (2) on a poll, each member has 1 vote for each share the member holds. The vote may be exercised in person or by proxy, body corporate representative or attorney. If a share is held jointly and more than 1 member votes in respect of that share, only the vote of the member whose name appears first in the Register counts. This applies whether the vote is cast in person or by attorney. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member are treated, for this purpose, as joint holders. A resolution put to the vote at a meeting of the Company's members must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded. On a show of hands, a declaration by the chair is conclusive evidence of the result. Subject to section 251AA of the Act, neither the chair nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote, and also, if the chair is a member, any vote the he or she has in his or her capacity as a member. Notwithstanding this, if the chair would not be entitled to vote on a particular resolution, the chair does not have a casting vote on that particular resolution. |
| Dividends | Except as permitted by the Act no dividend or bonus or payment by way of bonus is payable to members otherwise than out of profits of the Company. |
| Transfer of Shares | Except where required or permitted by law, the Listing Rules, the SCH Business Rules or this constitution, there is no restriction on the transfer of shares. The Company may ask SCH to apply a Holding Lock to prevent a proper SCH transfer, or refuse to register a paper-based transfer, in certain circumstances such as the Company is permitted to do so by the Listing Rules, transfer does not comply with an employee incentive plan if served with a court order that restricts the holder's capacity to transfer the securities. |
| Meetings and Notice | At least 28 days' notice of a general meeting must be given in writing to those persons who are entitled to receive notices from the Company. Written notice of a meeting of the Company's members must be given individually to: (1) each member entitled to vote at the meeting; (2) each director; (3) the Company's auditor; and (4) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member who, but for his or her death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting. |
| Liquidation rights | If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution, divide among the members in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company and may for that purpose set the value the liquidator considers fair upon any property to be so divided and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. |
| Unmarketable parcels | The Constitution contains provisions permitting it to sell unmarketable parcels of shares on terms consistent with the Listing Rules. Notice must be given to the holder of the intended sale and the holder must be given at least six weeks to notify the Company that it wishes to retain its Shares. |

| Variation of rights | Rights attached to shares in a class of shares may be varied or cancelled only:  (1) by special resolution of the Company; and (2) either: (a) by special resolution passed at a meeting of the members holding shares in the class; or (b) with the written consent of members with at least 75% of the votes in the class. This applies whether or not the Company is being wound up. The Company must give a notice in writing of the variation or cancellation of shares to members of the class affected within 7 days after the variation or cancellation. The provisions of this constitution relating to general meetings apply so far as they are capable of application and with the necessary changes to every meeting of members holding shares in a class except that: (1) a quorum is constituted by not less than 2 members who, between them, hold or represent 25% of the issued shares of the class; and (2) any member who holds or represents shares of the class may demand a poll. |
| Listing Rules | The Company is admitted to the Official List, and as such despite anything in the Constitution, if the Listing Rules prohibit an act being done, the act must not be done. Nothing in the Constitution prevents an act being done that the Listing Rules require to be done. If the Listing Rules require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be). If the Listing Rules require the Constitution to contain a provision or not to contain a provision the Constitution is deemed to contain that provision or not to contain that provision (as the case may be). If a provision of the Constitution is or becomes inconsistent with the Listing Rules, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision to the extent of the inconsistency. |
