RCR Mining Technologies secures new work

NRW Holdings Limited (ASX:NWH) is pleased to advise that its wholly owned subsidiary RCR Mining Technologies (RCRMT) has been awarded contracts to supply process equipment and support activities to a number of clients in Western Australia. The business has already commenced work on ordering long lead items in support of these orders. In total, awards to date are valued at around $22 million.

NRW CEO & Managing Director Jules Pemberton commenting on the awards said "The orders for new equipment represent an important vote of confidence by key clients in the quality of the products supplied by RCRMT. The growing demand for Product support and Heat Treatment activities is important as part of the groups move to establish a growing base of recurring income.

"Since acquiring the business in February integration activities have progressed well and winning this work is particularly welcome news to our workforce in Bunbury and Welshpool".
