Dear Mr Hesford,

MZI Resources Limited – Request for extension of voluntary suspension under Listing Rule 17.2

Pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.2, MZI Resources Limited (ASX: MZI) (MZI or the Company) requests a continuation of the voluntary suspension of the Company's securities to enable the Company to continue its efforts to secure the provision of additional funding for the Company and to continue the existing process to realise value from its Keysbrook mineral sands project.

The Company requests that the suspension in trading in MZI securities remain in place until such time as the Company is able to make an announcement regarding this matter which is expected to be by 19 April 2019.

The Company confirms that it is not aware of any reason why trading in its securities should not be suspended.

Kind Regards,

John Traicos

Company Secretary
