

Neurotech confirms new appointments including Independent Non-Executive Chairman

Malta & Perth, Australia – 16 April 2019 – Neurotech International Limited (ASX: NTI) (“Neurotech” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce several new appointments, effective immediately, including:

- Mr Mark Davies as Independent Non-Executive Chairman
- Mr Winton Willesee as Independent Non-Executive Director
- Ms Eryln Dale as Company Secretary

The new appointments have been made in line with the Company’s revised commercial strategy to ensure the best path toward maximising shareholder value. The relevant skills and qualifications of each of the new appointments is outlined below in Annexure A.

Concurrently with the new appointments, Mr Peter O’Connor, Mr Simon Trevisan and Dr Neale Fong have retired as directors of the company, while Ms Fleur Hudson has retired as Company Secretary. The Company would like to thank the outgoing directors for their hard work and support. Mr O’Connor and Mr Trevisan joined as directors prior to the Company’s IPO in 2016 and have worked tirelessly since. Mr Fong joined the board in 2018 and has provided a specialist health sector perspective which has been greatly appreciated.

Incoming Chairman Mark Davies said: “Neurotech has faced several recent challenges but remains in a unique position with a scientifically proven product, ready to sell into a large market. I am pleased to take on the challenge at an important time for the company and ensure we target the best possible outcomes for shareholders.”

Neurotech CEO Peter Griffiths said: “I’d like to thank the outgoing board members and the corporate services team for their long-term partnership, advice and support. Our Mente Brain Training Therapy is helping children with Autism relax, focus and engage with those around them. I look forward to working with Mark, our board, our dedicated employees and our key partners to grow the business and improve the lives of children and families coping with Autism.”
