ASX Announcement

23 May 2019

Conclusion of Commonwealth Financial Planning Pilot Agreement

Intiger Group Limited (ASX:IAM) (Intiger or the Company) wishes to inform the market that the pilot agreement with Commonwealth Financial Planning Limited (the Pilot Agreement) (refer to the Company's announcement of 2 February 2018 for further details of the Pilot Agreement) will formally conclude on 31 May 2019.

During the term of the Pilot Agreement, the Company was pleased to have met all required service standards, including strict quality metrics, turnaround times, and workflow management as determined by the Commonwealth Bank of Australia.

Despite this, the Company has been unable to negotiate an ongoing commercial agreement with the client.

This will formally conclude the Company's existing contractual relationship with Commonwealth Financial Planning Limited.

Intiger management is working on an update to the Company's corporate strategy and will advise shareholders and the market in due course.

ABOUT

Intiger Group Limited

The business of Intiger Group Limited (ASX: IAM), operates an Australian software development house dedicated to supporting professional Financial Planners to meet the needs of their clients. Intiger does this by reducing the back office and operational costs within the Australian financial planning industry. Working with Australian Financial Services Licensees and their advisers, the Intiger Group has developed and launched proprietary software platform boom, which has been designed to digitise and automate core components of the financial planning process including the online practice management system which tracks key performance indicators of a financial planning practice and delivers oversight and control to both licensors and financial planning practices nationally.
