Entitlement Issue

Flexiroam Limited (ASX: FRX, Flexiroam or the Company) is pleased to announce that it has launched a Renounceable Rights Issue to raise up to $1.21 million.

The Renounceable Rights Issue has been offered on a one-for-four basis at 2 cents per fully paid ordinary share to raise up to $1.21 million, with one attaching listed option (exercise price of $0.12 and 3-year term) (Listed Option) for every new share subscribed for under the Renounceable Rights Issue. The Company will apply for listing of new shares and new options on the ASX.

Eligible shareholders can trade their rights and apply for shortfall in excess of their entitlement. The rights will commence trading on 4 October 2019 and the offer close on 17 October 2019.

Commenting on the Rights Issue, Flexiroam Managing Director Jef Ong said: "We are pleased to be able to offer shareholders the opportunity to participate in this raising on what we consider to be attractively priced terms. In the past 3 years, Flexiroam has achieved a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) on revenue of 71% and the revenue for the financial year ended on 31 March 2019 grew 100% to A$5.93 million from the year before. Flexiroam continues to set higher targets and deliver its stated objective of increasing revenue and global customer base."

The proceeds from the Rights Issue will allow the Company to continue to invest in its innovative roaming solutions and new product development, long considered a strength of Flexiroam, in order to stay ahead of competitors and the market. Flexiroam eSIM was launched early this year and it has received very encouraging take-up from subscribers around the world. We look forward to updating shareholders of our progress over the coming months."
