Dear Wade,

Variscan Mines Limited (ASX:VAR) (“Variscan”) – Request for Voluntary Suspension

Further to the request by Variscan for a trading halt dated 8 October 2019 and in accordance with Listing Rule 17.2 Variscan requests that ASX grant a voluntary suspension of its shares effective from the commencement of trading on Thursday 10 October 2019.

Variscan requests that the suspension remain in place until it can make an announcement in relation to the proposed capital raising. The Company anticipates that it will be able to provide an update to shareholders on or before 14 October 2019.

Variscan is not aware of any reason why the voluntary suspension should not be granted, nor of any other information relevant to this request.

Yours faithfully

MARK PITTS
Director/Company Secretary
