NetLinkz Limited announces appointment of Grant Thomson as Non-Executive Director

NetLinkz Limited (ASX: NET) ('NetLinkz') is pleased to announce the appointment of Grant Thomson to the Board as Non-Executive Director.

Grant is an experienced Business and IT Executive working with local and overseas businesses in Advisor, Founder and Partner capacities. He brings over twenty years of Enterprise and Entrepreneurial IT experience to engagements, and a keen desire to effect real change.

Grant has had a long career with Enterprise IT providers, IBM and Salesforce, in a variety of roles such as Technical Project Management, Service Delivery, Sales, Consulting, Management and Executive Leadership positions. Over the last few years, Grant has focused on helping smaller companies, such as GrowthOps, Versent and Nebulr (now Contino), scale and better engage Enterprise clients with Cloud technologies. He is a co-Founder of many startups, and he combines a passion for business with a love of technology to help clients of all sizes solve problems, transform and scale.

Grant has a Business degree from High Point University, North Carolina. He is a Scottish-native, lives in Black Rock, Melbourne, and is married with two children.

"We are excited to welcome Grant to the Board. Grant brings extensive enterprise experience in Cloud and edge technologies which is focused on Marketing, Distribution and Sales. He will provide the company with a skill set to commercialise the Joint Venture with iSoftStone in China as well as assisting with our expansion into other Regional markets.
