COMPANY UPDATE

As previously announced, the Board continues to proactively identify and review acquisition and investment opportunities.

In the meantime, the Board has determined to implement a cost reduction programme in order to conserve cash. The Company's directors, as well as its corporate advisor, shall have fees reduced by 50%. Corporate secretarial and financial management service fees shall be reduced by 25%. The Company will terminate all non-essential services and consultancy contracts. These changes are effective immediately.
