ASX Announcement

ARUMA'S NEW LEASES ADD TO GOLD PROJECT PORTFOLIO

Aruma Resources Ltd (AAJ) is pleased to announce that it has applied for four new exploration licences over underexplored gold prospective ground in Western Australia, and a new ELA in New South Wales adjacent to the recently secured Capital Gold Project (ASX announcement, 5 June 2020).

The leases are:

- Scotia South - E63/2037 which covers an untested extension of the Wiluna - Norseman Greenstone belt,
- Saltwater - E52/3830 and E52/3837 which extends the Project in the Pilbara over the extensions and splays of the Nanjilgardy Fault,
- Melrose - E08/3219 covers gold prospects to the south, and
- Capital - ELA5987 which covers the old gold workings of Shinglehouse Creek and Bywong-Macs Reef in the Goulburn region of NSW.

The new leases complement Aruma's strategy to pursue new, prospective gold project areas, which demonstrate the potential to deliver high-grade gold discoveries.

NEW LEASE OVER UNEXPLORED GREENSTONE AT SCOTIA SOUTH

The new Scotia South lease, E62/2037, covers the extension of geology similar to Pantoro Limited's (ASX: PNR) Scotia Mining Centre, within the Norseman Gold Project, and also Eldridge's Find, situated just to the north of E62/2037 (see Figure 2). Pantoro's recent Panda discovery (PNR announcement 21 May 2020) demonstrated the stratigraphic continuation of the Scotia orebodies.
