

Phenix Health and ResApp Health Sign Software Licensing Agreement to Use ResAppDx-EU in Phenix's Telehealth App

Brisbane, Australia, 16 June 2020 – ResApp Health Limited (ASX:RAP), a leading digital health company developing smartphone applications for the diagnosis and management of respiratory disease, and Phenix Health Pty Ltd, Australia's leading virtual super clinic, have signed a software licensing agreement to use ResApp's acute respiratory diagnostic test, ResAppDx-EU, in Phenix's telehealth smartphone app. ResAppDx-EU is approved by the Therapeutics Goods Administration (TGA) in Australia and is CE Marked in Europe as an aid for clinicians in the diagnosis of a range of respiratory diseases.

The two-year, non-exclusive commercial software licensing agreement allows Phenix to use ResAppDx-EU in their telehealth smartphone app within Australia from 1 July 2020. The per test license fee received by ResApp is in the previously targeted range of $5 to $10. The licence may be extended beyond the initial two-year term by mutual agreement and either party may terminate the licence by providing 60 days written notice.

"At Phenix we are establishing a first-of-its-kind virtual respiratory clinic to address the increasing demand we are seeing for remote acute respiratory disease care. We are excited to be launching ResAppDx-EU on our platform on the 1st of July," said Dr Gillian Alexis, CEO and founder of Phenix Health. "Phenix is Australia's leading virtual super clinic, delivering continuity of care, with over 300 general practitioners and specialists providing telehealth services Australia-wide. Tools such as ResAppDx-EU will allow our doctors to provide the highest levels of care to our patients in the virtual setting."

Tony Keating, CEO and Managing Director of ResApp, added, "We are pleased to have partnered with Phenix to integrate ResAppDx-EU into their virtual super clinic. Our initial launch, via Phenix's telehealth iOS application, will see our clinically-validated and regulatory-approved diagnostic test available to Phenix's customers Australia-wide, empowering their doctors to better assess patients presenting with respiratory symptoms such as sore throat, runny nose, shortness-of-breath or cough."
