ASX Announcement

Market Update

Kresta Holdings Limited (ASX: KRS, Kresta or Company) provides the following market update.

The Company's securities have been suspended from the Official List since 31 August 2018.

Under ASX's policy as set out in Guidance Note 33, unless the Company's securities have been readmitted to trading or the Company has otherwise obtained an extension from ASX, its securities are automatically delisted two years following suspension.

Whilst the Company has been working to explore avenues for the readmission of its securities, the Board has determined that in the current circumstances, it is better for Kresta to pursue its business and operations as a public unlisted company.

The Company will therefore be automatically delisted.

The Board would like to take this opportunity to thank its shareholders for their support of the Company.
