ASX Announcement – 19 February 2015

ASX Code: BOA

Fraser Range Exploration Update

Boadicea Resources wishes to advise that a ground based Gravity Survey over the western portion of its Symons Hill licence in the Fraser Range has now been completed. Final data and its interpretation by the Company's Geophysical Consultants is expected late March.

Recently, Boadicea Resources announced that its Ground EM Survey at Symons Hill had identified a significant conductor along strike from Nova. (Refer ASX release 30 January 2015).

The Company is currently evaluating a number of drilling quotes and attending to other related matters with an expected drilling commencement of mid to late April.
