CORRECTIONS

- (1) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names should be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group. The membership of such group, with the names and addresses of members, is clearly set out in paragraph 4 of the form.
- (2) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 106 and 107(2) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (3) See the definition of "threshold" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) Include details of:
 - (a) any relevant agreement or other circumstances because of which the change in relevant interest occurred. If subsection (7)(b) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving it and accurate details of any change, scheme or arrangement, must accompany the form, together with a written statement confirming the contract, scheme or arrangement; and
 - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the securities to which the relevant interest relates (including clearly the particular securities to which the qualification applies).See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (5) Details of any consideration must include any and all benefits, money and other, that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may, become entitled to receive in relation to that acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or not of a contingency. Details must be included of any benefit paid or paid to the substantial holder or its associate in relation to the acquisition, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
- (6) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless stated otherwise.
- (7) Give details, if appropriate, of the present association and any changes in that association about the real substantial holding notice.
