PHYTOTECH LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

PhytoTech Medical Limited (ASX: PYL) (the “Company”) today advises that the newly designed corporate website is now live and available at www.phytotechmed.com.

The Medical Cannabis industry is relatively new in Australia and as the first medical cannabis company to list on the ASX, PhytoTech intends to use its website to provide the investment community with the knowledge to understand its business and the industry better.

The Company encourages shareholders to visit the website to access up-to-date industry news and details on the Company’s activities and its products in the development pipeline.
