

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

24 June 2015

Update on business development / integration

The Directors of Capitol Health Ltd Group (ASX:CAJ, "Company" or "Capitol") advise that the Professional Services Agreement ("Agreement") with Mr Carl Adams to provide business development and strategic services through his company Flowtint Pty Limited, has been terminated at the direction of the Company, in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.

Business development and the growth of the Company continue to be a key focus for Capitol. To date in the 2015 financial year, the Company has successfully integrated three new businesses into the group, all of which are having a positive impact on revenues, with a fourth in preparation. All integrations have been the subject of ASX Releases.

Capitol continues to have an experienced core team (lead by its Managing Director, Mr John Conidi) dedicated to new business development in key areas through the identification, analysis and successful integration of suitable acquisitions into the Company's existing platform.
