Macmahon sells Mongolian business

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX: MAH) today announced the signing and simultaneous completion of an agreement to sell its Mongolian operations to a private company for US $65 million. The purchase price has now been received in full by Macmahon. Net proceeds of the transaction are expected to be in the order of US$62 million.

Under the sale agreement, Macmahon has provided certain warranties about the entities involved in the transaction and their assets and operations. Macmahon will also provide transitional services to the buyer for a short period following completion of the sale.

As previously announced, Macmahon was in discussions with Erdenes Tavan Tolgoi LLC, the client at its Mongolian project, regarding payment delays. Completion of the sale will result in Macmahon exiting from that mining contract and the buyer managing it going forward.
