RESEARCH REPORT

Kingston Resources (ASX: KSN) advises that Strachan Corporate (AFSL 259730) recently completed a commissioned research report on the Company.

The report entitled "GAWLER CRATON CU-AU SPECIALIST — FUNDED TO ACCELERATE EXPLORATION" focuses on the 5-hole drilling campaign currently underway at the Six Mile Project. The Project is part of the Mineral Systems Drilling Program which is being partially funded by the South Australian Government.

The Company has announced that drilling has commenced at Six Mile Hill. Work targeting coincident gravity-magnetic anomalism is supported by shallow copper geochemistry. Targets are anticipated in haematitic breccia at about 180-250 metres below surface in the top priority holes.

Kingston, is currently raising capital through a 4:5 rights issue at 2 cents per share, to accelerate its exploration activity at Six Mile Hill, Cootanoorina and other projects. The Company's prospectus can be viewed at: <http://www.kingstonresources.com.au/prospectus/>
