RCR RESPONSE TO MEDIA ARTICLE – VISY CLAIM

RCR Tomlinson Ltd (ASX: RCR) notes a media report in today's Australian newspaper regarding RCR's project for Visy (Visy Paper, then WTE Cogeneration) commencing in 2008.

RCR confirms that it is indemnified for this project by its insurers and they have been representing RCR since 2011.

RCR maintains that Visy was responsible for the fuel and the entire fuel handing system. Visy has, to date, failed to supply the fuel within specification for the boiler, which was specified by Visy in 2006. The boiler was never designed to be an incinerator.

RCR's contract excluded consequential losses, has a cap on liability of 50% of the contract sum and is underwritten by insurance.

The Supreme Court hearing today is only in respect of procedural matters and is as a result of Visy failing to deliver information within the court ordered time frame.
