New research report on Energia

Energia Minerals Ltd (ASX: EMX) is pleased to advise that stockbroking firm Argonaut Limited has completed a new research report on the Company.

The report, which is titled "Site Visit – the Italian Job", highlights the progress being made by Energia at its flagship Gorno Zinc Project in northern Italy, including the current extensive resource definition drilling program which will lay the foundations for a maiden JORC Mineral Resource and Scoping Study due in late March.

Argonaut completed a site visit to Gorno in February, including inspections of the Colonna Zorzone and Colonna Fortuna underground workings.

A copy of the Argonaut research report is available from the Company's website, www.energiaminerals.com, by clicking on Research & Analyst reports under the Investor Centre.
