HELIO ENERGIA ANNOUNCES USE OF JA SOLAR PANELS IN BRAZIL

Nickelore Limited (ASX: PML) is pleased to advise that Helio Energia Holdings SA and its subsidiary Helio Projetos em Energia Renovavel Ltda dba Helio Energias Energias Renováveis ("Helio") and JA Solar Holdings Co., Ltd. ("JA Solar") jointly announced today that Helio was the launch customer for JA Solar panels to be installed in Brazil.

Helio is now using JA Solar modules in its broad portfolio of distributed generation projects. Since signing the supply agreement last year, JA has delivered over 2.3 MW of modules, and 85% are already installed. Mr. Dale A. Vander Woude, Helio CEO and President, said that the projects utilizing JA modules are planned to start commercial operation by the end of February.

"JA Solar is one of the largest solar equipment manufacturers in the world. They produce high quality modules, which aligns well with our commitment to meet international best practices in all of our projects," Mr. Vander Woude said. "We are pleased that JA Solar is now our leading supplier of panels. We anticipate growing our relationship with them as the Brazilian market for solar energy expands."

ABOUT HELIO
